End Date July 8, 2022

If no End Date is entered, then the End Date shall be the first June 30 after the Start Date. VENDOR shall register with and maintain current information within OUSD's Community Partner database unless OUSD communicates to VENDOR in writing otherwise, based on OUSD's determination that the Services are not related to community school outcomes. If and when VENDOR's programs and school site(s) change (either midyear or in subsequent years), VENDOR shall promptly update the information in the database.

Camp Phoenix 2021 Impact Report

Impact Report 2021

Our Story So Far

Camp Phoenix is a fun-filled, justice-centered program that is intentional about empowering teens from low-income backgrounds and reconnecting them to nature so they can become the leaders our community—and our planet—needs.

Our three-week, overnight summer camp blends the fun of sleepaway camp with the rigor of exploratory learning to propel middle school students into the next school year and beyond. Throughout the year, we guide teens on weekend trips throughout the Bay Area to expose them even more to what Mother Nature has to offer. Since 2012, Camp Phoenix has served more than 500 campers and we strive to bring joy, love and opportunity to everyone who joins the flock.

So why are we so passionate about making sure more Black and Brown kids get to experience summer camp and get connected to nature?

Overall, Black and Brown kids still don't have enough access to affordable summer camps. The problem is indicative of a larger trend that exists where people of color aren't represented in outdoor recreation.

The Outdoor Foundation's 2019 national survey found that Black kids, in particular, have the lowest participation rate in outdoor activity of any ethnic group. According to the 74 Million, fewer than 40 percent of Black youth ages 6–17 reported participating in outdoor activity once per month, while white youth in that age group participated at around 60 percent. Only 4 percent of kids who attend summer camps are Black, the 74 Million also reported.

What does this tell us?

Now, more than ever, BIPOC kids need to experience the joys of summer camp just like other kids get to do every year.

By exposing them to the great outdoors, we know they'll be encouraged to thrive and take advantage of what was placed here on Earth for all of us to enjoy.

middle school students have already had their lives transformed by attending
Camp Phoenix

Our 2021 Strategy

Knowing that the COVID-19 pandemic could disrupt our plans for the year, we planned several virtual and socially distanced outdoor activities.

We also held our annual summer camp in San Gregorio, although we unfortunately had to make the tough decision to shut down camp early after discovering one positive test result for COVID-19.

Despite the abrupt and premature end to camp this year, we're happy to report that our campers made wonderful memories.

Over the course of our time together, campers built friendships, learned new things about the world and themselves, and had no shortage of fun: games, songs, a night hike, skits and more.

Most of all, the four nights and five days of sleepaway camp was still transformative for many of our young people, who had never camped before. Many of them told us they didn't want to leave, and we hope most can come back next year.

"Camp Phoenix gave me more confidence and taught me how to speak up for myself."

— Parent DeJanna Lewis

Acknowledgments

Our donors provide the spark that makes Camp Phoenix possible and we are thankful for their support. In the absence of these generous supporters, Camp Phoenix would not be able to provide youth with fun learning opportunities for just $0 – $60 per camper. It is our donors who enable our mission and make our impact possible.
