As a part of their Full Service Community School efforts, Oakland International High School is increasing their programs and services for newly-arrived immigrant families (over 95% of the family population at the school), as outlined in the OUSD's Title III Plan Strategy 6, Goal 2E. In order to support these efforts and engage more families in school activities for the remainder of the year, Oakland International High School is contracting Michelle Rostampour to (1) conduct family outreach to families related to school-based family engagement events, including coordinating interpretation/translation for phone calls and outreach materials; (2) supporting the planning and implementation of 3 school-wide family engagement workshop events; (3) working with families to setup and organize the Family Outreach Center; (4) support ongoing family meetings at OIHS and connect to the OUSD Refugee Family Meetings (Title III Plan Strategy 2, Goal 2G); and (5) inform parents about classes & activities at the family learning center.
