Memo

To Board of Education

From Dr. Silke Bradford, Director – Quality Diverse Providers
Cesar E. Monterrosa, Ed.D.- Director of Facilities Planning
Marion McWilliams - General Counsel

Board Meeting Date May 24, 2017

Subject Certification of Unhoused Pupils as it Relates to Charter Schools' Applications for Facilities Funding

Action Requested Adoption by the Board of Education of Resolution authorizing and approving Certification of Unhoused Pupils Related to Charter School Applications for Facilities Funding in accordance with applicable law.

Background and Discussion

Pursuant to School Facility Program Regulation Section 1859.162 regarding General Preliminary Charter School Apportionment Eligibility Criteria, the Charter Schools listed below have or will submit an application for Charter Schools Facilities Funding to the Office of Public School Construction.

As a condition of processing a Charter School application for facilities funding under the Charter School Facilities Program (CSFP), a resolution is required from the Governing Board of the local school district in which the Charter School is physically located, certifying the number of projected unhoused pupils, if any, that will be served by the proposed Charter School project.

Pursuant to CSFP Regulation Section 1859.162.1(a) the Oakland Unified School District Board of Education is required to discuss this issue as an action item at a regularly scheduled board meeting.

The following proposed Charter School projects are anticipated to be physically located within the boundaries of the following high school attendance areas within the Oakland Unified School District:
