ARTICLE II

MEETINGS OF SHAREHOLDERS

Section 2.1 Place of Meetings. All meetings of shareholders shall be held at the principal office of the corporation, or at such other place, either within or without the State of California, as shall be fixed by the Board of Directors.

Section 2.2 Annual Meetings. The annual meeting of shareholders shall be held on the first Tuesday of October of each year at 10:00 A.M. for the purpose of electing directors except for the chairman who shall be elected for a period of two years, and for the transaction of such other business as may be properly brought before the meeting. If the day fixed for the annual meeting shall be a legal holiday in the State of California, such meeting may be held on the next succeeding business day or whenever convenient. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution on the corporation.

Section 2.3 Substitute Annual Meeting. If the annual meeting shall not be held by the end of June, a substitute annual meeting may be called in accordance with the provisions of Section 2.4. A meeting so called shall be designated and treated for all purposes as the annual meeting. Failure to hold the annual meeting at the designated time shall not work a forfeiture or dissolution of the corporation.

Section 2.4 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the shareholders may be called at any time by any director of the Board of Directors or the President, and shall be called pursuant to the written request of the holders of not less than one-tenth of all the votes entitled to be cast on any issue proposed to be considered at the meeting.

Section 2.5 Notice of Meetings. Written notice stating the date, time and place of the meeting shall be given not less than ten nor more than sixty days before the date of any shareholders' meeting, either by personal delivery, or by telegraph, teletype, or other form of wire or wireless communication, or by facsimile transmission or by mail or private carrier, by or at the direction of the Board of Directors, the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, the Secretary, or other person calling the meeting, to each shareholder entitled to vote at such meeting; provided that such notice must be given to all shareholders with respect to any meeting at which a merger or share exchange is to be considered and in such other instances as required by law. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be effective when deposited in the United States mail, correctly addressed to the shareholder at the shareholder's address as it appears on the current record of shareholders of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid.

In the case of a special meeting, the notice of meeting shall include a description of the purpose or purposes for which the meeting is called; but, in the case of an annual or substitute annual meeting, the notice of meeting need not include a description of the purposes for which the meeting is called unless such a description is required by the provisions of the California Business Corporation Act.

When a meeting is adjourned to a different date, time or place, notice need not be given of the new date, time or place if the new date, time or place is announced at the meeting before adjournment and if a new record date is not fixed for the adjourned meeting; but, if a new record date is fixed for the adjourned meeting (which must be done if the new date is more than 120 days after the date of the original meeting), notice of the adjourned meeting must be given as provided in this section to persons who are shareholders entitled to notice as of the new record date.

Section 2.6 Waiver of Notice. Any shareholder may waive notice of any meeting before or after the meeting. The waiver must be in writing, signed by the shareholder and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. A shareholder's attendance, in person or by proxy, at a meeting (a) waives objection to lack of notice or defective notice of the meeting, unless the shareholder or his proxy at the beginning of the meeting objects to holding the meeting or transacting business at the meeting; and (b) waives objection to consideration of a particular matter at the meeting that is not within the purpose or purposes described in the meeting notice, unless the shareholder or his proxy objects to considering the matter before it is voted upon.

Section 2.7 Shareholders' List. Before each meeting of shareholders, the Secretary of the corporation shall prepare an alphabetical list of the shareholders entitled to notice of such meeting. The list shall be arranged by voting group (and within each voting group by class or series of shares) and show the address of and number of shares held by each shareholder. The list shall be kept on file at the principal office of the corporation, or at a place identified in the meeting notice in the city where the meeting will be held, for the period beginning two business days after notice of the meeting is given and continuing through the meeting, and shall be available for inspection by any shareholder, his agent or attorney, at any time during regular business hours. The list shall also be available at the meeting and shall be subject to inspection by any shareholder, his agent or attorney, at any time during the meeting or any adjournment thereof.

Current Shareholders	Bob Rahebi	100%
----------------------	------------	------

Section 2.8 Voting Group. All shares that under the articles of incorporation or the California Business Corporation Act are entitled to vote and be counted together collectively on a matter at a meeting of shareholders constitute a voting group. All shares entitled by the articles of incorporation or the California Business Corporation Act to vote generally on a matter are for that purpose a single voting group. Classes or series of shares shall not be entitled to vote separately by voting group unless expressly authorized by the articles of incorporation or specifically required by law.

Section 2.9 Quorum. Shares entitled to vote as a separate voting group may take action on a matter at the meeting only if a quorum of those shares exists. A majority of the votes entitled to be cast on the matter by the voting group constitutes a quorum of that voting group for action on that matter.

Once a share is represented for any purpose at a meeting, it is deemed present for quorum purposes for the remainder of the meeting and for any adjournment of that meeting unless a new record date is or must be set for that adjourned meeting.

In the absence of a quorum at the opening of any meeting of shareholders, such meeting may be adjourned from time to time by the vote of a majority of the votes cast on the motion to adjourn; and, subject to the provisions of Section 2.5, at any adjourned meeting any business may be transacted that might have been transacted at the original meeting if a quorum exists with respect to the matter proposed.

Section 2.10 Proxies. Shares may be voted either in person or by one or more proxies authorized by a written appointment of proxy signed by the shareholder or by his duly authorized attorney in fact. An appointment of proxy is valid for eleven months from the date of its execution, unless a different period is expressly provided in the appointment form.

Section 2.11 Voting of Shares. Subject to the provisions of the articles of incorporation, each outstanding share shall be entitled to one vote on each matter voted on at a meeting of shareholders.

Except in the election of directors as governed by the provisions of Section 3.3, if a quorum exists, action on a matter by a voting group is approved if the votes cast within the voting group favoring the action exceed the votes cast opposing the action, unless a greater vote is required by law or the articles of incorporation or these Bylaws.

Absent special circumstances, shares of the corporation are not entitled to vote if they are owned, directly or indirectly, by another corporation in which the corporation owns, directly or indirectly, a majority of the shares entitled to vote for directors of the second corporation; provided that this provision does not limit the power of the corporation to vote its own shares held by it in a fiduciary capacity.

Section 2.12 Informal Action by Shareholders. Any action that is required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the shareholders may be taken without a meeting if one or more written consents, describing the action so taken, shall be signed by all of the shareholders who would be entitled to vote upon such action at a meeting, and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records.

If the corporation is required by law to give notice to nonvoting shareholders of action to be taken by unanimous written consent of the voting shareholders, then the corporation shall give the nonvoting shareholders, if any, written notice of the proposed action at least ten days before the action is taken.

ARTICLE III

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Section 3.1 General Powers. All corporate powers shall be exercised by or under the authority of, and the business and affairs of the corporation shall be managed under the direction of, the Board of Directors.

Section 3.2 Number and Qualifications. The number of directors constituting the Board of Directors shall be one.

Section 3.3 Election. Except as provided in Section 3.6, the directors shall be elected at the annual meeting of shareholders. Those persons who receive the highest number of votes at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be deemed to have been elected.

If the articles of incorporation provide for cumulative voting, every shareholder entitled to vote at an election of directors shall have the right to cast the number of votes he is entitled to cast for as many persons as there are directors to be elected and for whose election he has a right to vote, or to cumulate his votes by giving one candidate as many votes as the number of such directors multiplied by the number of his votes shall equal, or by distributing such votes on the same principal among any number of such candidates. This right of cumulative voting shall not be exercised unless (a) the meeting notice or proxy statement accompanying the notice states conspicuously that shareholders are entitled to cumulate their votes, or (b) a shareholder or proxy who has the right to cumulate his votes announces in open meeting, before the voting for the directors starts, his intention to vote cumulatively; and if such announcement is made, the chair shall declare that all shares entitled to vote have the right to vote cumulatively and shall announce the number of votes represented in person and by proxy and shall thereupon grant a recess of not less than one nor more than four hours, as he shall determine, or of such other period of time as is then unanimously agreed upon.

Section 3.4 Term of Directors. Each initial director shall hold office until the first shareholder's meeting at which directors are elected, or until such director's death, resignation, or removal. The term of every other director shall expire at the next annual shareholders' meeting following the director's election or upon such director's death, resignation or removal. The term of a director elected to fill a vacancy expires at the next shareholders' meeting at which directors are elected. A decrease in the number of directors does not shorten an incumbent director's term. Despite the expiration of a director's term, such director shall continue to serve until a successor shall be elected and qualifies or until there is a decrease in the number of directors.

Section 3.5 Removal. Any director may be removed at any time with or without cause by unanimous consent of the shareholders pursuant to Section 2.12, or at a shareholder meeting by a sufficient vote of the shareholders under N.C.G.S. §55-8-08. If a director is elected by a voting group of shareholders, only the shareholders of that voting group may participate in the vote to remove him. A director may not be removed by the shareholders at a meeting unless the notice of the meeting states that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is removal of the director. If any directors are so removed, new directors may be elected at the same meeting.

Section 3.6 Vacancies. Any vacancy occurring in the Board of Directors, including without limitation a vacancy resulting from an increase in the number of directors or from the failure by the shareholders to elect the full authorized number of directors, may be filled by the shareholders or by the Board of Directors, whichever group shall act first. If the directors remaining in office do not constitute a quorum, the directors may fill the vacancy by the affirmative vote of a majority of the remaining directors. If the vacant office was held by a director elected by a voting group, only the remaining director or directors elected by that voting group or the holders of shares of that voting group are entitled to fill the vacancy.

Section 3.7 Chairman. The Board of Directors may elect from their number at any meeting of the Board a Chairman of the Board of Directors. The Chairman shall preside at all meetings of the Board of Directors and perform such other duties as are provided in Section 5.7 and as may be directed by the Board. In the absence of the Chairman, the President of the Corporation shall preside at the meeting of the Board of Directors.

Section 3.8 Compensation. The Board of Directors may provide for the compensation of directors for their services as such and for the payment or reimbursement of any or all expenses incurred by them in connection with such services.

ARTICLE IV

MEETINGS OF DIRECTORS

Section 4.1 Regular Meetings. Unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, a regular meeting of the Board of Directors shall be held immediately after, and at the same place as, the annual meeting of shareholders. In addition, the Board of Directors may provide, by resolution, the time and place, within the State of California, for the holding of additional regular meetings.

Section 4.2 Special Meetings. Special Meetings of the Board of Directors may be called by or at the request of the Chairman of the Board of Directors, the President, or any director. Such a meeting shall be held within the State of California, as fixed by the person or persons calling the meeting, unless all the directors agree to a different location outside the State of California.

Section 4.3 Notice of Meetings. Regular meetings of the Board of Directors may be held without notice. The person or persons calling a special meeting of the Board of Directors shall, at least five days before the meeting, give or cause to be given notice thereof by any usual means of communication. Such notice need not specify the purpose for which the meeting is called. Any duly convened regular or special meeting may be adjourned by the directors to a later time without further notice.

Section 4.4 Waiver of Notice. Any director may waive notice of any meeting before or after the meeting. The waiver must be in writing, signed by the director entitled to the notice and delivered to the corporation for inclusion in the minutes or filing with the corporate records. A director's attendance at or participation in a meeting waives any required notice of such meeting unless the director at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon arrival, objects to holding the meeting or to transacting business at the meeting and does not thereafter vote for or assent to action taken at the meeting.

Section 4.5 Quorum. Unless the articles of incorporation or these Bylaws provide otherwise, a majority of the number of directors fixed by or pursuant to these Bylaws shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any meeting of the Board of Directors, or if no number is so fixed, a majority of directors in office immediately before the meeting begins shall constitute a quorum.

Section 4.6 Manner of Acting. Except as otherwise provided in the articles of incorporation or these Bylaws, including Section 4.9, the affirmative vote of a majority of the directors present at a meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the Board of Directors.

Section 4.7 Presumption of Assent. A director who is present at a meeting of the Board of Directors or of a committee of the Board of Directors when corporate action is taken is deemed to have assented to the action taken unless (a) he objects at the beginning of the meeting, or promptly upon his arrival, to holding it or to transacting business at the meeting, or (b) his dissent or abstention from the action taken is entered in the minutes of the meeting, or (c) he files written notice of his dissent or abstention with the presiding officer of the meeting before its adjournment or with the corporation immediately after the adjournment of the meeting. Such right of dissent or abstention is not available to a director who votes in favor of the action taken.

Section 4.8 Action Without Meeting. Action required or permitted to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Directors may be taken without a meeting if the action is taken by all members of the Board. The action must be evidenced by one or more written consents signed by each director before or after such action, describing the action taken, and included in the minutes or filed with the corporate records.

Section 4.9 Committees of the Board. The Board of Directors may create an Executive Committee and other committees of the Board and appoint members of the Board of Directors to serve on them. The creation of a committee of the Board and appointment of members to it must be approved by the unanimous vote of the number of directors then fixed in accordance with these Bylaws. Each committee of the Board must have two or more members and, to the extent authorized by law and specified by the Board of Directors, shall have and may exercise all of the authority of the Board of Directors in the management of the corporation. Each committee member serves at the pleasure of the Board of Directors. The provisions in these Bylaws governing meetings, action without meetings, notice and waiver of notice, and quorum and voting requirements of the Board of Directors apply to committees of the Board established under this section. Provided, however, that a committee may not (i) authorize distributions; (ii) approve, or propose to shareholders, action that is required by law to be approved by shareholders; (iii) fill vacancies on the Board of Directors or on any of its committees; (iv) amend the articles of incorporation; (v) adopt, amend or repeal bylaws; (vi) approve a plan of merger; (vii) authorize or approve reacquisition of shares, except according to a formula or method prescribed by the Board of Directors; (viii) authorize or approve the issuance or sale or contract for the sale of shares, or determine the designation and relative rights, preferences, and limitations of a class or series of shares, except within limits specifically prescribed by the Board of Directors, or (ix) take any other action not permitted by law to be taken by a committee of the Board of Directors.

ARTICLE V

OFFICERS

Section 5.1 Officers. The officers of the corporation shall consist of such officers as shall be determined from time to time by or under the authority of the Board of Directors. Such officers may (but are not required to) include a President, a Secretary, a Treasurer, one or more Vice Presidents, one or more Assistant Secretaries, and one or more Assistant Treasurers. To the extent a person is appointed from time to time to an office listed in the preceding sentence, he or she shall have the authority and duties provided in the section of this Article V applicable to such office, except as the Board of the Directors may otherwise determine. The same person may hold any two or more offices, but no officer may act in more than one capacity where action of two or more officers is required.

Section 5.2 Appointment and Term. The officers of the corporation shall be appointed by the Board of Directors or by a duly appointed officer authorized by the Board of Directors to appoint one or more officers or assistant officers. Each officer shall hold office until his death, resignation, retirement, removal, disqualification or his successor shall have been appointed. The appointment of an officer does not itself create contract rights.

Section 5.3 Compensation of Officers. The compensation of all officers of the corporation shall be fixed by or under the authority of the Board of Directors, and no officer shall serve the corporation in any other capacity and receive compensation therefor unless such additional compensation shall be duly authorized.

Section 5.4 Removal. Any officer may be removed by the Board at any time with or without cause; but such removal shall not itself affect the officer's contract rights, if any, with the corporation.

Section 5.5 Resignation. An officer may resign at any time by communicating his resignation to the corporation, orally or in writing. A resignation is effective when communicated unless it specifies in writing a later effective date. If a resignation is made effective at a later date that is accepted by the corporation, the Board of Directors may fill the pending vacancy before the effective date if the Board provides that the successor does not take office until the effective date. An officer's resignation does not affect the corporation's contract rights, if any, with the officer.

Section 5.6 Bonds. The Board of Directors may by resolution require any officer, agent, or employee of the corporation to give bond to the corporation, with sufficient sureties, conditioned on the faithful performance of the duties of his respective office or position, and to comply with such other conditions as may from time to time be required by the Board of Directors.

Section 5.7 President. The President shall be the chief executive officer of the corporation. The President shall sign, with the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, (i) any certificates for shares of the corporation, (ii) entries in the Stock Transfer Book, and (iii) any deeds, mortgages, bonds, contracts, or other instruments which the Board of Directors has authorized to be executed except in cases where the signing and execution thereof shall be expressly delegated by the Board of Directors or by these Bylaws to some other officer or agent of the corporation or shall be required by law to be otherwise signed or executed. The President shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors from time to time.

Section 5.8 Vice-Presidents. To the extent so authorized by the Board of Directors, in the absence of the President or in the event of his death, inability or refusal to act, the Vice Presidents in the order of their length of service as such (except as otherwise determined by the Board of Directors) shall perform the duties of the President and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the President. The Vice Presidents shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the President.

Section 5.9 Secretary. The Secretary shall: (a) keep the minutes of the meetings of shareholders, of the Board of Directors and of all committees in one or more books provided for that purpose; (b) see that all notices are duly given in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws or as required by law; (c) maintain and authenticate the records of the corporation and be custodian of the seal of the corporation and see that the seal of the corporation is affixed to all documents the execution of which on behalf of the corporation under its seal is duly authorized; (d) sign with the President certificates for shares of the corporation, the issuance of which has been authorized by the Board of Directors; (e) maintain and have general charge of the stock transfer books of the corporation; (f) prepare or cause to be prepared shareholder lists prior to each meeting of shareholders as required by law; (g) attest the signature or certify the incumbency or signature of any officer of the corporation; and (h) in general perform all duties incident to the office of secretary and such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the President.

Section 5.10 Assistant Secretaries. In the absence of the Secretary or in the event of his death, inability or refusal to act, the Assistant Secretaries in the order of their length of service as Assistant Secretary, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors or President, shall perform the duties of the Secretary, and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Secretary. They shall perform such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or President. Any Assistant Secretary may sign, with the President, certificates for shares of the corporation, the issuance of which has been authorized by the Board of Directors.

Section 5.11 Treasurer. A Treasurer shall: (a) have charge and custody of and be responsible for all funds and securities of the corporation; receive and give receipts for moneys due and payable to the corporation from any source whatsoever, and deposit all such moneys in the name of the corporation in such depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of Section 6.4 of these Bylaws; (b) maintain appropriate accounting records as required by law; and (c) in general perform all of the duties incident to the office of treasurer and such other duties as from time to time may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the President.

Section 5.12 Assistant Treasurers. In the absence of a Treasurer or in the event of his death, inability or refusal to act, any Assistant Treasurers in the order of their length of service as such, unless otherwise determined by the Board of Directors, shall perform the duties of the Treasurer, and when so acting shall have all the powers of and be subject to all the restrictions upon the Treasurer. They shall perform such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Directors or the President.

ARTICLE VI

CONTRACTS, LOANS, CHECKS AND DEPOSITS

Section 6.1 Contracts. The Board of Directors may authorize any officer or officers, agent or agents, to enter into any contract or execute and deliver any instrument in the name of and on behalf of the corporation, and such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 6.2 Loans. No loans shall be contracted on behalf of the corporation and no evidence of indebtedness shall be issued in its name unless authorized by the Board of Directors. Such authority may be general or confined to specific instances.

Section 6.3 Checks and Drafts. All checks, drafts or other orders for the payment of money, issued in the name of the corporation, shall be signed by such officer or officers, agent or agents of the corporation and in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by the Board of Directors.

Section 6.4 Deposits. All funds of the corporation not otherwise employed shall be deposited from time to time to the credit of the corporation in such depositories as may be selected by or under the authority of the Board of Directors.

Section 6.5 Contingent Liabilities. Before taking an action that would expose the corporation to any contingent liabilities, the officer responsible for the action must first consult with and gain approval of the action from the Board of Directors or the President.

ARTICLE VII

SHARES AND THEIR TRANSFER

Section 7.1 Certificates for Shares. The Board of Directors may authorize the issuance of some or all of the shares of any or all of its classes or series without certificates. The written information statement required by the California Business Corporation Act shall be provided to the shareholder in connection with the issuance or transfer of any such shares without certificates.

If shares are represented by certificates, the certificates shall be in such form as required by law and as determined by the Board of Directors. Certificates shall be signed manually by the President and by the Secretary or an Assistant Secretary, and their signatures thereon shall be acknowledged before a notary public. All certificates for shares shall be consecutively numbered or otherwise identified and entered into the stock transfer books of the corporation.

If shares are represented by certificates, the corporation shall issue and deliver to each shareholder to whom such shares have been issued or transferred certificates representing the shares owned by him. If shares are not represented by certificates, then within a reasonable time after the issuance or transfer of such shares, the corporation shall send the shareholder to whom such shares have been issued or transferred a written statement of the information required by law to be on certificates.

Section 7.2 Stock Transfer Books. The corporation shall keep a set of books in triplicate originals, to be known as the Stock Transfer Books of the corporation, containing the name of each shareholder of record, together with such shareholder's address and the number and class or series of shares held. All entries in the Stock Transfer Books must be made by the Secretary or Assistant Secretary and countersigned by the President. Transfers of shares of the corporation shall be made only on the Stock Transfer Books of the corporation by the holder of record thereof or by its legal representative, who shall furnish proper evidence of authority to transfer, or by its attorney authorized to effect such transfer by power of attorney duly executed and filed with the Secretary, and on surrender for cancellation of the certificate (if any) for such shares. The Stock Transfer Books shall be prima facie evidence as to the identity of all shareholders entitled to examine such records or transfer books, or to vote at any shareholders' meeting.
