Background:
 (A one paragraph explanation of why the consultant's services are needed.)

In response to the investigation by the US Office of Civil Rights and subsequent OUSD Voluntary Resolution Plan (VRP), OUSD has identified the need for schools to implement restorative justice (RJ) practices to build community, repair harm, and re-integrate students into the classroom after incarceration or involuntary transfer. The OUSD RJ program supports the District's goal of reducing racially disproportionate discipline (DMC) by building community and resolving conflicts between students which may otherwise result in fights and subsequent suspensions. Restorative Justice has efficacy as an alternative to suspension and is a key component of the District's comprehensive violence prevention plan. Specific activities include hiring RJ Coordinators to support teachers in using restorative practices in the classroom, coach students to use communication and problem-solving skills to assist their peers in managing and resolving interpersonal conflict, and to work with site administrators to use restorative discipline.
