Highlights: Street Academy

- Partnership with Holy Names University to help get in the pipeline and recruit more teachers of color into Oakland Public School classrooms
- This school year during distance learning students have gotten the opportunity to partner with Holy Names University Professors by virtually leading Dynamic Mindfulness/ Transformative Life Skills
- Also spoken at town hall meetings to incoming teachers about their experience with distance learning and how teachers can connect better with urban youth

Highlights: Fremont High School

- Fremont had 42 students from the Media and Architecture Academies participate in internships and Laney classes this summer, despite the pandemic.
- 17 of 42 interns were part of the Media Academy Summer Institute, run by Media CTE Teachers. Students focused on graphic design, audio, and video production. Their work was featured in the Fruitvale Short Film Festival in September.
- Architecture Academy has also been instrumental in Oakland Manufacturing Week, with Construction CTE Teacher Drew Prober providing a tour of EBY Construction, where he used to work in the industry.
- Construction of the new Media and Architecture CTE classrooms is nearing completion, courtesy of Measure J Facilities Bond. Expected completion date is December 2020.
