ABOUT THE OAKLAND SCHOOLS FOUNDATION

HISTORY

The Oakland Small Schools Foundation was founded by educators and community leaders in 2003 to raise money for the District's small-by-design schools. Over the next decade the Foundation broadened its reach and impact by working with more schools. To reflect this shift toward strengthening public education across Oakland, in 2010 the organization changed its name to the Oakland Schools Foundation.

In 2011, OSF's Board of Directors approved a new strategic plan focused on OSF evolving to become OUSD's local education fund. In this new role, OSF will continue to provide communications, fiscal sponsorship, and resource development support to schools while taking on a broader public role helping OUSD generate and manage resources to strengthen teaching, learning, and leadership across the district.

RESULTS AND IMPACT

- FISCAL SPONSORSHIP: OSF has worked with close to 70 Oakland public schools since 2003, acting as their 501(c)(3) and giving them a way to take in donations and other funds. PTAs play this role at some schools in Oakland, but many schools don't have that resource.
- GRANTS FUNDING AND FUNDRAISING: OSF has helped schools raise more than $24 million through grants and individual donations since 2003 to support key programs such as extra academic support for kids, after-school enrichment, science field trips, staff to strengthen family-school partnerships, and more. In most cases, these programs would have otherwise gone unfunded.
- COMMUNITY OUTREACH: In addition to fundraising, OSF's community outreach work with schools has helped them gain positive media exposure, tell their stories beyond their campuses, and increase enrollment.
- PROFESSIONAL LEARNING COMMUNITIES: OSF runs two key collaborative programs that bring together schools to share ideas and best practices. Founded in 2007, the Family Engagement and Leadership Initiative (FamELI) is a professional learning community of 20 schools focused on strengthening school-family partnerships in service of student achievement. The Elementary Literacy Collaborative (ELC) uses high-quality interventions to improve literacy outcomes for elementary school students, with an emphasis on strengthening achievement for African-American students.
