If no Start Date is entered, then the Start Date shall be the latest of the dates on which each of the PARTIES signed this Agreement.

- b. The work shall be completed no later than the below date (“End Date”):
6/1/23

If no End Date is entered, then the End Date shall be the first June 30 after the Start Date. 2. Services. VENDOR shall provide the services (“Services”) as described in #1A and #1B of Exhibit A, attached hereto and incorporated herein by reference. To the extent that there may be a school closure (e.g., due to poor air quality, planned loss of power, COVID-19) or similar event in which school sites and/or District offices may be closed or otherwise inaccessible, VENDOR shall describe in #1B of Exhibit A whether and how its services would be able to continue.

3. Alignment and Evaluation.

VENDOR shall register with and maintain current information within OUSD's Community Partner database unless OUSD communicates to VENDOR in writing otherwise, based on OUSD's determination that the Services are not related to community school outcomes. If and when VENDOR's programs and school site(s) change (either midyear or in subsequent years), VENDOR shall promptly update the information in the database.
6. Confidentiality and Data Privacy.

The granting of any payment by OUSD, or the receipt thereof by VENDOR, shall in no way lessen the liability of VENDOR to correct unsatisfactory performance of Services, even if the unsatisfactory character of the performance was not apparent or detected at the time a payment was made. If OUSD determines that VENDOR's performance does not conform to the requirements of this Agreement, VENDOR agrees to correct its performance without delay.

4. Adapting Services for Students with Disabilities: If VENDOR will provide direct services to students under this Agreement, describe the manner in which services will be accommodated, modified, or otherwise adapted to meet the unique needs of students with disabilities:

For Gender Splendor, the primary activities of participants are: sitting in a circle, sharing, listening, asking questions, and doing small activities like drawing or painting nails, and watching videos. For students who are hard-of-hearing, videos with captions will be provided. If captions are not available, the facilitator will do a 'check for understanding' with students who are hard of hearing and provide additional or repeated explanations orally or written as needed. For students with disabilities related to motor functioning, all activities like drawing or painting nails are opt-in, and facilitators will collaborate with day-time teachers of students with motor functioning disabilities on accommodations for related activities in day-time, and will implement similar accommodations for the after school group. Similarly, for students with learning disabilities (e.g. dyslexia, sensory processing disorder), facilitator will check in with day-time teachers to learn how accommodations and modifications are made during day-time classes (since activities during Gender Splendor will not be 'unusual' activities for school), and similar modifications will be provided for group. For example, if a student has a learning disability that makes reading very challenging for them, reading aloud will always be optional, and students with disabilities can also choose to get written materials ahead of time to be prepared to read if they would like to do so. Location of the Gender Splendor group is in the Library, which is wheelchair accessible.

For Mindful Movement, the primary activities of participants are: standing, holding Jo staff, listening to facilitators, taking small shuffle steps, controlled swinging motions of the staff, turning and pivoting, in controlled balanced movements. For students with disabilities that affect their ability to stand or walk, similar accommodations as to P.E. classes will be made (and the facilitator has a P.E. Teaching Credential), such as making modified movements from a wheelchair or seated position, or offering alternative roles if the movements feel inaccessible to the student (for example, a peer-observer/coach role to give feedback to the class on certain movements). For students with disabilities that affect their ability to use arms and hands to hold or swing a staff, the facilitator will collaborate with day-time P.E. teachers on the modifications provided for that student, and will do their best to mirror those modifications. For example, a student might focus on the legs and hip movements, and not use the staff, or use a smaller staff or a substitute object. The facilitator purchased staffs of multiple lengths to support students of different heights. For students with disabilities that impact their ability to process auditory/oral teachings or with encoding memory, visual aids of the 31 Jo Kata sequence will be provided, either on Google Slides or printed out step-by-step instructions.

5. Waivers: OUSD has waived the following. Confirmation of the waiver is attached herewith:
