Subject Professional Services Contract - California Youth Outreach - Oakland
- Oakland International High School -- 353 (site/department)

Action Requested Ratification of professional services contract between Oakland Unified School District and California Youth Outreach - Oakland. Services to be primarily provided to Oakland International High School -- 353 for the period of 12/1/2014 through 6/30/2015.

Background
A one paragraph explanation of why the consultant's services are needed.

Oakland International High School is home to 400 newly-arrived immigrant students who come from 30 countries and speak more than 35 languages. Many of our Latino students arrive with high levels of trauma, a pending deportation case, years of family separation, and are at high risk for gang involvement and recruitment. Latino boys at OIHS are disproportionately sent to the office and suspended. OCYO's mentorship, casemanagement and gang intervention services will support OIHS's most struggling and gang at-risk students to improve their learning, school connectedness, sense of safety, and overall academic and socio-emotional success.

Discussion
One paragraph summary of the scope of work.

Oakland Community Youth Outreach will provide on-site mentoring, gang intervention, casemanagement, and social services coordination to OIHS's high-need Latino boys, with a particular focus on a caseload of 15 youth. OCYO staff member will serve on the weekly Coordination of Services Team, meet weekly with students on his caseload for mentoring sessions and checkins, support teachers and staff with student mediation and redirection, connect students to high-leverage community-based services (enrichment, health, job and other services) and provide individual- and group-based coaching for gang at-risk youth.

Recommendation Ratification of professional services contract between Oakland Unified School District and California Youth Outreach - Oakland. Services to be primarily provided to Oakland International High School -- 353 for the period of 12/1/2014 through 6/30/2015.

How to Interrupt, Mediate and Prevent Gang Violence in Our Neighborhoods

Oakland California Youth Outreach, Inc. (OCYO) is broadly supported by Oakland Unite and others. We provide high priority services to "at risk" youth and young adults.

Through street outreach in targeted hot spots, trained OCYO staff members build solid neighborhood relationships among people of all ages and circumstances. As a result, we are able to provide timely intervention, mediation and case management services.

The ongoing challenge for the street outreach teams is to identify opportunities for reducing gang violence beforehand. We also help our communities to make the commitment to strengthen our neighborhoods through closer cooperation.

Major School Initiatives Balance Our Efforts

Some of OCYO's greatest successes take place in the school environment. On one hand, specially trained staffers are called upon to guide and develop those students most likely to drop out or participate in gang violence. There is an additional priority.

Our school program specialists have a sharp eye for encouraging those at risk students that have the highest potentials for leadership and improved academic performance. The troublemakers can become "role models" with the help of OCYO's specially trained school guides.

Our Youth Programs Solutions Are Designed to Compliment Each Other

Intervention/Prevention Services are designed to prevent and disrupt the cycle of violence, including crisis response to gang-related homicides.

Community Engagement Activities strengthen relationships and build understanding among residents. This includes evening recreation activities at popular gathering spots.

Youth Intervention/Case Management Services are for those at highest risk of truancy or as perpetrators & victims of violent crime.

Juvenile Justice Re-Entry Service is for youth being released from Juvenile Hall. Case Managers help reintegrate students into school and comply with probationary mandates.

Education and Information Meetings provide community/parent gang awareness sessions. Violence prevention planning, strategies and solutions are discussed.

Training and Consultation Services offer staff training on a scheduled basis for government and nonprofit agencies. This improves collaboration among service providers.

After School Programs are based on health wellness and life skills training. The program is designed to develop student leaders who can serve as role models.

Vision & Mission Statement

"Working Together for Safer Communities"

"We help Oakland's diverse younger population by interrupting and preventing gang violence; mediating conflicts; improving school attendance & performance; and by developing potentials for personal, job, and career success. From resource assistance for the more capable to in-depth guidance for the more seriously disadvantaged, we support our community's continued transformation – one unique person and neighborhood at a time."

Communities United Against Gun Violence

The shadow of night that falls over many of our neighborhoods leaves unanswered questions about the future of our Public Safety Programs. The answer must reach beyond increased policing alone; or firmer gun control policy; or even greater accountability among civic leaders. No one source will provide the best solution! It will take a united community; a cooperative media; and active participation among public, private and social sector leaders.

About

Community violence is epidemic in urban areas throughout America. Our young people suffer its most lethal and devastating consequences. Despite being subject to seemingly insurmountable odds many inner city youths go on to lead meaningful and successful lives.

Today, under the new name of Oakland California Youth Outreach, the OCYO team is building real momentum. The "Street Outreach" staff gathers at its headquarters on MacArthur Boulevard throughout the week. The purpose is manifold: staff meetings to plan and share experiences, one-on-one sessions with young clients, training sessions, tracking progress of each individual served. And of course, serving as "Violence Interrupters" as incidents may occur throughout the assigned hot spots. Evening and weekends are particularly busy times as they maintain a presence on the streets.

Through "Street Outreach" and "Men of Influence," the OCYO teams build relationships within Oakland's most volatile areas. They host cookouts, maintain networks, mediate conflict, and stand on call for interventions throughout the week. Increasingly, we are moving toward a more vital role in support of the economic transformation underway in conjunction with our more active partnering relationships.
