January 12, 2011

ACC Middle School Update:

At our December 16th ACC Middle School meeting we had 35 students from 3 schools participate in our Food Justice workshops. Frick Leadership students hosted us. We had two guest speakers from OUSD Nutrition Services introduce the students to our Wellness Policy, and Eric Adams, former student director co-lead "You Are What You Eat" workshop with ACC governing board.

Our next workshop will be on water and OUSD "green" policies, on January 18th, at Edna Brewer, 10am to noon.

ACC High School Update:

- At our high school general meeting Dec 18th at Oakland High, delegates from 6 schools attended. Delegates were orientated to the ACC safety platform, and heard guest speakers from the City's Citizens Police Review Board report back on the Biased Policing Summit Dec 7th. Delegates also committed to focusing the January 20th ACC meeting to the Strategic Plan, and our district wide youth feedback tool: Youth Truth. We are asking principals to help us survey 60% of their student population online at their school site computer labs. Most of the results of the survey will be applied to the SEAN task force. The outcomes of our October and November discussions on quality teaching will be presented to the Effective Teaching Task Force.
- The governing board announced the resignations of Eric Bagley as student director, and Salvador Mateo as Parliamentarian at our December general meeting. The governing board also announced intent to appoint committed delegates to these positions. The appointments will be approved on Jan 20th, our next ACC general meeting.
- Student Support Resolution follow up: oral comments.
- MSE Youth Planning Retreat Jan 7-9: oral comments.

Our next ACC High School meeting will take place at McClymonds on Jan 20th, from 1pm to 3pm.
