Subject Curriculum Adoption for Ethnic Studies

Ask of the Board Adoption by the Board of Education, upon the recommendation of the Teaching and Learning Committee, of Resolution No. 2425-0219, selection and purchase of the following curricular materials:

- 1) Ethnic Studies Syllabus
- 2) OUSD Ethnic Studies Reader

Background Need for Updated Ethnic Studies Curriculum

Providing teachers and students with equitable access to high-quality, standards-based instructional materials is a responsibility of the school district and a central component of OUSD’s strategy to build coherent instructional systems that improve student outcomes, particularly for students from marginalized communities. To meet the strategic plan goal of guaranteeing literacy by 3rd grade and beyond, OUSD has adopted and implemented high-quality materials in elementary and middle school in recent years. Providing this curriculum with aligned professional development and coaching has created greater alignment across schools and access to grade-level, standards-based learning.

Ethnic Studies (ES) in Oakland was born out of student activism at Castlemont High School, who demanded that the stories of their communities be reflected in the classroom. The first official Ethnic Studies course launched in 2015. Since then, students, educators, and community members have collaboratively developed Ethnic Studies standards, a framework, pedagogical commitments, and a shared vision statement. Teachers have played a central role in designing four core units of study that guide ES instruction across the district. Their work is supported by OUSD Board Policies that affirm the importance of Ethnic Studies. Today’s curriculum reflects the passion and commitment of this movement—centered on delivering relevant, rigorous, and equitable learning for all students.

In 2025, Ethnic Studies will become a mandatory course for all California 9th graders and a requirement to graduate from high school. Dr. Kyle Beckham, was contracted through OUSD to conduct a thorough review of our prior curriculum in preparation for Board Adoption in Spring of 2025. The work of many amazing and dedicated teachers and TSA’s have shaped our current standards and curriculum. We believe that these standards are worthy of achieving for our students and our core mission in the curriculum revision was to retain those standards, supplement and enhance the learning goals so that all students can access and demonstrate mastery of these standards, and align the Ethnic Studies values and principles.

Dr. Beckham’s audit recommends a focused, equitable, and aligned approach that centers race and racism as core themes. The curriculum should provide a clear and structured introduction to Ethnic Studies, with diagnostic assessments used to gauge students’ prior knowledge and inform instructional scaffolding that ensures equitable access for all learners. Clearly defined academic, social, and political goals should guide instruction, supported by intentional community-building practices and regular celebrations of student growth. Assessment practices must prioritize mastery of content and skills, offer accommodations for diverse learners, and incorporate student choice to promote engagement. Instruction should minimize lecture-based delivery in favor of active, student-centered learning, using structured protocols and standardized lesson planning that connects objectives to assessments and standards. Content should be relevant, timeless, and connected to students’ lived experiences, maintaining a focus on race while introducing intersectionality in a developmentally appropriate way. Teachers should receive sustained support for implementing complex projects like the Taking Action Project, with accessible and centrally managed curriculum materials and regular opportunities for revision based on feedback. Finally, the curriculum should be designed with long-term integration in mind, laying a strong foundation for future coursework and interdisciplinary learning across the district.

This current syllabus and Reader (collection of short texts connected to the units) support the teaching and learning of Ethnic Studies aligned to our mission and vision, along with Dr. Kyle Beckham’s key recommendations of focus, equity and alignment to race and racism.

Discussion

Revision Process

Beginning in 2023, in collaboration with UC Berkeley Department of Education, the Ethnic Studies curriculum in Oakland Unified School District entered a comprehensive audit process. Following this audit, key recommendations were made.

In August 2024, the Ethnic Studies Secondary alignment team—composed of Claire Fisher, Raquel Jimenez, Vonzele Reed, Leah Aguilera, and Berta Guillen—convened to guide the revision process. In addition, a year-long curriculum working group of current Ethnic Studies teachers was established. Goals for the working group were to review Dr. Beckhams recommendations, pilot lessons, and course alignment.

In February and March, trial lessons of unit 2 began at Oakland High School in partnership with Jenny Clark, Ethnic Studies educator. Lesson pilot included reviewing sources, student engagement feedback, co-teaching, observation and post observation reflection and modifications to improve student learning. Following the completion of pilot lessons, Ethnic Studies TSA hosted a student -focused listening session.

In Spring 2025, key presentations and community engagement events included a Principal Leadership Meeting, a Family Engagement session, and a forthcoming public review of syllabi and course readers.

Fiscal Impact

We are not purchasing a curriculum from a vendor, nor asking for partnership for ongoing PD. This curriculum is unique in that it was created with our own staff and PD will be facilitated internally. The total cost for the purchase of curriculum and the associated professional learning, illustrated below, is $61,814.00.

Materials Review

Context of the Materials Review:

To enhance the 9th-grade Ethnic Studies curriculum, Oakland Unified School District contracted Dr. Kyle Beckham, UC Berkeley, to conduct an audit of the existing curriculum. He recommends a focused, equitable, and aligned approach that centers race, racialization, and racism as core themes. The curriculum should provide a clear and structured introduction to Ethnic Studies, with diagnostic assessments used to gauge students' prior knowledge and inform instructional scaffolding that ensures equitable access for all learners. Clearly defined academic, social, and political goals should guide instruction, supported by intentional community-building practices and regular celebrations of student growth. Assessment practices must prioritize mastery of content and skills, offer accommodations for diverse learners, and incorporate student choice to promote engagement. Instruction should minimize lecture-based delivery in favor of active, student-centered learning, using structured protocols and standardized lesson planning that connects objectives to assessments and standards. He recommends that content should be relevant, timeless, and connected to students' lived experiences, maintaining a focus on race while introducing intersectionality in a developmentally appropriate way. He urged OUSD to provide teachers with sustained support for implementing complex projects like Taking Action Project, with accessible and centrally managed curriculum materials and regular opportunities for revision based on feedback. Finally, the curriculum should be designed with long-term integration in mind, laying a strong foundation for future coursework and interdisciplinary learning across the district.

They also reviewed the NewsELA Ethnic Studies collection and provided critical feedback to assess the content quality, usability of the materials. Students were also asked for feedback following the implementation of a trial lesson using the NewsELA platform.

Spring Lesson Trials

In December 2024, Oakland High educators met with Ethnic Studies TSA, Berta Guillen, to hear about the curriculum revisions process. In this meeting, a teacher made a wish - could we co-teach lessons from the revised curriculum to enhance her understanding of the shifts proposed? In Spring 2025, Ethnic Studies TSA Berta Guillen and Ethnic Studies teacher Jenny Clark co-taught four lessons from a unit on power, privilege and Oppression. The results are shared below.

Student Reflection Data

Student: "Something that worked well was having a group to share and collaborate with. I think it was well planned and I just need more time for the paper [writing task]"

Student "What worked well for me today in this lesson is getting other people's perspective on what they think power is."

Ethnic Studies TSA conducted a post trial, listening session with Oakland High students. Students were given an opportunity to reflect on belonging in the classroom, the trial lessons and then viewed the end of the unit task source. Some key suggestions shared were:

Student "I need more options in sharing what I've learned - art, drawing, creativity - I want to be able to show what I know in different ways."

Student, "What if we broke the Four I's of Oppression concepts one day at a time, with like more examples? That would help me really understand it."

Qualitative Teacher Reflection Data

Jenny Clark, Oakland High School Ethnic Studies teacher says, “ [It was a] good thing that the lessons included student talk, but it may have cut down on time for the writing tasks. Needed more time for the writing tasks. However, the goal is to slow down the pacing so they have the time to complete the writing.”

She goes on to say that a strength was that “Berta instructed as she had planned (In Period 2) while Clark took notes in order to pivot. Tracking the evolution of the lessons was the best part of their experience. Together we were able to see what worked, what did not and adjust in real time. “ Jenny shared with the Oakland High team the importance and power of having an opportunity to observe the lesson taught, co-teach in the second period, in order to have the confidence to teach on her own in the final period of the day.

Teacher’s Review of Ethnic Studies Syllabi

Teacher Medina, “ I am interested in using it next year. I like that we tested four of them (lessons) and wrote down areas that didn’t work well. More questions will arise as I start using it more.”

Teacher Kurose, “Looking at the lessons, I think it's rigorous, lots of opportunities for student talk. Like seeing the questions students are asking, like that strategy and asking their questions, shows their interest in what they want to learn and demonstrates their agency.”

Teacher’s Review of ES Reader

The reader emphasizes “That literacy and reading is a part of this course ... it’s a chance to emphasize literacy”

The Reader presents an opportunity to articulate the liberatory purpose of education and Ethnic Studies. Literacy and Ethnic studies go hand in hand. As June Jordan said, Literacy is a political act. This tracks from Unit 0 through Unit 1. (paraphrased)

Syllabus

Introduction to Ethnic Studies - 9th Grade

Vision Statement: Ethnic Studies in OUSD is committed to supporting the critical consciousness, self-determination, agency, and humanization of all people by:

- ★ honoring histories and cultures of racially marginalized groups
- ★ employing multiple disciplines and perspectives to critically analyze systems of oppression
- ★ promoting action in solidarity
- ★ positively transform students' lives and communities²

The foundational values of ethnic studies are housed in the conceptual model of the “double helix” which interweaves holistic humanization and critical consciousness. Humanization includes the values of love, respect, hope and solidarity. Critical consciousness is a developed awareness in analyzing oppressive systems which fosters a sense of agency. ³ In this class, students will engage with multiple disciplines, diverse perspectives, and interactive projects to deepen their understanding of systems and their own agency.

Course-Level Inquiry Question:

In what ways am I empowered and knowledgeable to act on social issues that are important to me and my communities in order to challenge racism and promote new narratives of hope and healing?

What does a truly liberatory education look like for our communities today?

VENDOR shall immediately stop providing SERVICES upon receipt of the termination notice from the OUSD Superintendent.
- d. Due to Failure to Ratify by OUSD Board. If, consistent with Paragraph 41 (Signature Authority), this AGREEMENT is executed on behalf of OUSD by the signature of the Superintendent, a Chief, a Deputy Chief, or an Executive Director, and the Board thereafter declines to ratify this AGREEMENT, this AGREEMENT shall automatically terminate on the date that the Board declines to ratify it. OUSD shall compensate VENDOR for the SERVICES satisfactorily provided through the date of termination.

7. Data and Information Requests.

- a. VENDOR shall timely provide OUSD with any data and information OUSD reasonably requests related to the provision of the SERVICES.
- b. VENDOR shall register with and maintain current information within OUSD's Community Partner database unless OUSD communicates to VENDOR in writing otherwise, based on OUSD's determination that the SERVICES are not related to community school outcomes. If and when VENDOR's programs and school site(s) change (either midyear or in subsequent years), VENDOR shall promptly update the information in the database.

8. Confidentiality and Data Privacy.

- a. OUSD may share information with VENDOR pursuant to this AGREEMENT in order to further the purposes thereof. VENDOR and VENDOR INDIVIDUALS shall maintain the confidentiality of all information received in the course of performing the SERVICES, provided such information is (i) marked or identified as “confidential” or “privileged,” or (ii) reasonably understood to be confidential or privileged.
- b. VENDOR understands that student data is confidential. VENDOR or VENDOR INDIVIDUALS may only access or receive identifiable student data, other than directory information, in connection with this AGREEMENT only after VENDOR and OUSD execute (i) a California Student Data Privacy Agreement (“CSDPA”) or CSDPA Exhibit E, if VENDOR is a software vendor, or (ii) the OUSD Data Sharing Agreement, if VENDOR is not a software vendor. Notwithstanding Paragraph 24 (Indemnification), should VENDOR or VENDOR INDIVIDUALS access or receive identifiable student data, other than directory information, without first executing such an agreement, VENDOR shall be solely liable for any and all claims or losses resulting from its access or receipt of such data.
- c. All confidentiality requirements, including those set forth in the separate data sharing agreement, extend beyond the termination of this AGREEMENT.

9. Copyright/Trademark/Patent/Ownership. Except for any intellectual property owned by VENDOR that existed prior to execution of this AGREEMENT, VENDOR understands and agrees that all other matters produced under this AGREEMENT shall be works for hire as defined under Title 17 of the United States Code, and all copyrights in those works are the property of OUSD. These matters include, without limitation, drawings, plans, specifications, studies, reports, memoranda, computation sheets, the contents of computer diskettes, artwork, copy, posters, billboards, photographs, videotapes, audiotapes, systems designs, software, reports, diagrams, surveys, source codes or any other original works of authorship, or other documents prepared by VENDOR in connection with the SERVICES performed under this AGREEMENT. VENDOR cannot use, reproduce, distribute, publicly display, perform, alter, remix, or build upon matters produced under this AGREEMENT without OUSD’s express written permission. OUSD shall have all right, title and interest in said matters, including the right to register the copyright, trademark, and/or patent of said matter in the name of OUSD. OUSD may, with VENDOR’s prior written consent, use VENDOR’s name in conjunction with the sale, use, performance and distribution of the matters, for any purpose and in any medium.

10. Alignment and Evaluation.

- a. VENDOR agrees to work and communicate with OUSD staff, both formally and informally, to ensure that the SERVICES are aligned with OUSD's mission and are meeting the needs of students as determined by OUSD.
 - b. OUSD may evaluate VENDOR or VENDOR INDIVIDUALS in any reasonable manner which is permissible under the law. OUSD's evaluation may include, without limitation: (i) requesting that OUSD employee(s) evaluate the performance of VENDOR or VENDOR INDIVIDUALS, and (ii) announced and unannounced observance of VENDOR or VENDOR INDIVIDUALS.
11. Inspection and Approval. VENDOR agrees that OUSD has the right and agrees to provide OUSD with the opportunity to inspect any and all aspects of the SERVICES performed including, but not limited to, any materials (physical or electronic) produced, created, edited, modified, reviewed, or otherwise used in the preparation, performance, or evaluation of the SERVICES. In accordance with Paragraph 3 (Compensation), the SERVICES performed by VENDOR must meet the approval of OUSD, and OUSD reserves the right to direct VENDOR to redo the SERVICES, in whole or in part, if OUSD, in its sole discretion, determines that the SERVICES were not performed in accordance with this AGREEMENT.

OUSD is not required to provide VENDOR with a basis or explanation for the removal request.

Coverage for sexual misconduct and harassment may either be provided through General Liability Insurance or Professional Liability Insurance. The coverage shall be primary as to OUSD and shall name OUSD as an additional insured with the additional insured endorsement provided to OUSD within 15 days of effective date of this AGREEMENT (and within 15 days of each new policy year thereafter during the TERM). Evidence of insurance shall be attached to this AGREEMENT or otherwise provided to OUSD upon request. Endorsement of OUSD as an additional insured shall not affect OUSD's rights to any claim, demand, suit or judgment made, brought or recovered against VENDOR. The policy shall protect VENDOR and OUSD in the same manner as though each were separately issued. Nothing in said policy shall operate to increase the Insurer's liability as set forth in the policy beyond the amount or amounts shown or to which the Insurer would have been liable if only one interest were named as an insured. The requirements of this subparagraph may be specifically waived as noted in Exhibit A.
 - b. Workers' Compensation Insurance. VENDOR shall procure and maintain, at all times during the TERM of this AGREEMENT, Workers' Compensation Insurance in conformance with the laws of the State of California (including, but not limited to, Labor Code section 3700) and Federal laws when applicable. If tuberculosis risk factors were identified for a VENDOR INDIVIDUAL, that VENDOR INDIVIDUAL must submit to an intradermal or other approved tuberculosis examination to determine if that VENDOR INDIVIDUAL is free of infectious tuberculosis. If the results of the examination are positive, VENDOR shall obtain an x-ray of the lungs. VENDOR, at its discretion, may choose to submit a VENDOR INDIVIDUAL to the examination instead of the risk assessment. The requirements of this subparagraph may be specifically waived as noted in Exhibit A.

- b. Fingerprinting/Criminal Background Investigation. For all VENDOR INDIVIDUALS providing the SERVICES, VENDOR shall ensure completion of fingerprinting and criminal background investigation and shall request and regularly review subsequent arrest records. VENDOR confirms that no VENDOR INDIVIDUAL providing the SERVICES has been convicted of a felony, as that term is defined in Education Code section 45122.1. VENDOR shall provide the results of the investigations and subsequent arrest notifications to OUSD. For purposes of this subparagraph, VENDOR shall use either California Department of Justice or Be A Mentor, Inc. Examples of a significant accident or incident include, without limitation, an accident or incident that involves law enforcement, or possible or alleged criminal activity, or possible or actual exposure to a communicable disease such as COVID-19. VENDOR shall properly submit required accident or incident reports within one business day pursuant to the procedures specified by OUSD. VENDOR shall bear all costs of compliance with this Paragraph.
- b. To the extent that a VENDOR INDIVIDUAL is included on the list of mandated reporters found in Penal Code section 11165.7, VENDOR agrees to inform that VENDOR INDIVIDUAL, in writing, that they are a mandated reporter, and describing the associated obligations to report suspected cases of abuse and neglect pursuant to Penal Code section 11166.5.

- c. Except as possibly stated otherwise in Exhibit A, to the extent that there may be a site closure (e.g., due to poor air quality, planned loss of power, strike) or similar event in which school sites and/or District offices may be closed or otherwise inaccessible, VENDOR is able to meet its obligations and perform the SERVICES required pursuant to this AGREEMENT; to the extent that VENDOR becomes unable to do so, VENDOR shall immediately inform OUSD in writing.

- c. Through its execution of this AGREEMENT, VENDOR acknowledges that it is familiar with the provisions of section 1090 et seq. and section 87100 et seq. of the Government Code, and certifies that it does not know of any facts which constitute a violation of said provisions. In the event VENDOR receives any information subsequent to execution of this AGREEMENT which might constitute a violation of said provisions, VENDOR agrees it shall immediately notify OUSD in writing.

22. Certification Regarding Debarment, Suspension, Ineligibility and Voluntary Exclusion.

VENDOR certifies, to the best of its knowledge and belief, that it and its principals are not presently debarred, suspended, proposed for debarment, declared ineligible, or voluntarily excluded from covered transactions by any Federal department or agency according to Federal Acquisition Regulation Subpart 9.4, and by signing this AGREEMENT, certifies that neither it nor its principals appear on the Excluded Parties List (<https://www.sam.gov/>).

23. Limitation of OUSD Liability.

Other than as provided in this AGREEMENT, OUSD's financial obligations under this AGREEMENT shall be limited to the compensation described in Paragraph 3 (Compensation). Notwithstanding any other provision of this AGREEMENT, in no event shall OUSD be liable, regardless of whether any claim is based on contract or tort, for any special, consequential, indirect or incidental damages, including, but not limited to, lost profits or revenue, arising out of, or in connection with, this AGREEMENT for the SERVICES performed in connection with this AGREEMENT.

24. Indemnification.

To the furthest extent permitted by California law, VENDOR shall indemnify, defend and hold harmless OUSD, its Governing Board, agents, representatives, officers, consultants, employees, trustees, and volunteers (“OUSD Indemnified Parties”) from any and all claims or losses accruing or resulting from injury, damage, or death of any person or entity arising out of VENDOR’s performance of this AGREEMENT. VENDOR also agrees to hold harmless, indemnify, and defend OUSD Indemnified Parties from any and all claims or losses incurred by any supplier or subcontractor furnishing work, services, or materials to VENDOR arising out of the performance of this AGREEMENT. VENDOR shall, to the fullest extent permitted by California law, defend OUSD Indemnified Parties at VENDOR’s own expense, including attorneys’ fees and costs, and OUSD shall have the right to accept or reject any legal representation that VENDOR proposes to defend OUSD Indemnified Parties.
 - b. OUSD shall, to the fullest extent permitted by California law, defend VENDOR and VENDOR INDIVIDUALS at OUSD’s own expense, including attorneys’ fees and costs.
25. Audit. VENDOR shall establish and maintain books, records, and systems of account, in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, reflecting all business operations of VENDOR transacted under this AGREEMENT. VENDOR shall retain these books, records, and systems of account during the TERM and for three (3) years after the earlier of (i) the TERM or (ii) the date of termination. VENDOR shall permit OUSD, its agent, other representatives, or an independent auditor to audit, examine, and make excerpts, copies, and transcripts from all books and records, and to make audit(s) of all billing statements, invoices, records, and other data related to the SERVICES covered by this AGREEMENT. Audit(s) may be performed at any time, provided that OUSD shall give reasonable prior notice to VENDOR and shall conduct audit(s) during VENDOR’S normal business hours, unless VENDOR otherwise consents.

27. Compliance with California and Federal Laws. VENDOR shall comply with all applicable California and Federal laws, regulations, and ordinances. This includes, but is not limited to, compliance with the California Labor Code 6401.9 (Workplace Violence Prevention Plans), as well as any other laws related to labor, employment, safety, health, and environmental regulations. The VENDOR shall ensure that all activities and services conducted under this AGREEMENT are in strict compliance with such laws and regulations. This AGREEMENT may be amended or modified only by a written instrument executed by both PARTIES.
35. Severability. If any term, condition, or provision of this AGREEMENT is held by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will nevertheless continue in full force and effect, and shall not be affected, impaired or invalidated in any way.
