Advisory and Oversight Committees and Commissions

Section 1 General Guidelines

Purposes

The Board shall establish advisory or oversight committees or commissions (hereafter “bodies”) for the purpose of meeting legal requirements and to provide advice and involvement concerning matters of interest and welfare to the Board of Education. Advisory committees shall focus their work on the goals and objectives of the District. Oversight committees or commissions have specific mandates outlined in authorizing legislation or voter-approved bonds and parcel taxes. All of these bodies are advisory to the Board of Education; the Board of Education retains final authority.

All body meetings are open to the public and shall have designated times for public comment.

Appointment, Term of Membership, and Attendance

Persons interested in serving on a body shall submit an application and any documents that outline their qualifications for and commitment to serve on the body, such as a resume.

The following information shall be made available from the Office of the Board of Education and the OUSD website:

- The purpose of each body.
- Any open seats on each body.
- The process to apply for any open seats on each body.
- Purpose and meeting schedule of each body.

Unless otherwise specified, the attendance requirement for each body shall provide that if a member misses two consecutive meetings without a valid excuse, as determined by the body, the member shall be considered to have resigned.

Unless otherwise specified, the term of a member, shall be for a two-year period. The Office of the Board of Education shall record the start date and end date of each member’s term according to the legislative enactment.

In those instances in which a new body’s full or total membership is being established for the first time the minority of members shall be appointed to a one-year term, and the majority of members shall be appointed to two-year term. The Office of the Board of Education shall record the start date and end date of each member’s term according to the legislative enactment.

A Member’s service on a body shall be limited to a maximum of three consecutive terms. A former member, who last served three consecutive terms, is eligible for re-appointment to a body after 12 calendar months have elapsed from the last date of the third term of the former member’s service. All committees and commissions shall be in recess during the month of July.

A decision regarding any replacement to fill vacancies shall be made by the Board, according to the application process outlined above, unless otherwise specified. A person appointed shall be for the vacancy term.

Size and Composition

All bodies, unless otherwise specified, shall be limited to seven members. All applications shall be reviewed by the Board President or the Board President's designee. The Board President's recommendations for the appointment of members to each body shall be forwarded to the Board of Education for ratification.

It is the goal of the Board that the composition of each body be representative of the following, unless otherwise specified herein or in the creation resolution:

- the ethnic, age group, and socio-economic composition of the District;
- the City's seven electoral districts;
- the business community;
- community organizations;
- teachers, administrators, and other school employees;
- parents;
- students; and
- labor organizations.

Operating Procedures

The specific function of each body shall be determined herein or by the Board.

Each body shall elect a chairperson, vice-chairperson, and secretary.

Written minutes shall be kept of all meetings held and shall record attendance and recommendations made. Adopted minutes shall be made available to the public by posting on the OUSD website.

Copies of all recommendations shall be forwarded by separate letter to the Board and to the Superintendent after the meeting at which the recommendations were adopted.

The quorum for each meeting shall be fifty percent plus one of the membership. There shall be no proxy votes.

All committees and commissions shall comply with the provisions of the Brown Act (Government Code 54950-54961).

Committee and commission members shall not be compensated for their services.

Board Liaisons

The Board President shall appoint a Board Director (each year at the Board's Annual Organization Meeting) to serve as a Board Liaison to each body. The expectation is for the Board Liaison to attend and observe all meetings of the body and provide consultative support to the chairperson.

Support Services

The Superintendent shall designate a Chief (senior management) to serve as the coordinator to each body and said coordinator shall be responsible for providing support services as needed. The Office of the Board of Education shall support each body. The Office of the Board of Education shall publicize the availability of vacancies on each body.

District Impact

To the extent possible, the coordinator to each body shall provide a District Impact Statement on behalf of the Superintendent analyzing the financial and programmatic impact of recommendations made by each body.

Evaluation

If recommendations are enacted, the effectiveness of the recommendations shall be evaluated to determine if they are meeting the identified goals.

Section 2 Mandated Advisory or Oversight Committees, Commissions

Each body that is mandated by law, court decision, or regulation shall conform and operate in compliance with the legal requirements for the body. Prior to the time at which the mandate of such body ends, the Board shall determine if or in what form the body, consistent with law, shall continue to function.

Mandated bodies include the Independent Citizens' Bond Oversight Committee, the Measure G Parcel Tax Independent Citizens Oversight Committee, the Measure N – College and Career Readiness Commission, and the Measure G1 – Teacher Retention and Middle School Improvement Act Oversight Commission.

Section 5 Committee Ethics Policy Statement

This Ethics Policy Statement provides general guidelines for all bodies in carrying out their responsibilities. Not all ethical issues that a body faces are covered in this Statement. However, this Statement captures some of the critical areas that help define ethical and professional conduct for members. The provisions of this Statement were developed from existing laws, rules, policies, and procedures as well as from concepts that define generally accepted good business practices. Members are expected to strictly adhere to the provisions of this Statement.

POLICY

CONFLICT OF INTEREST. A member shall not make or influence a District decision related to: (1) any contract funded by bond or parcel tax proceeds or (2) any program or project which will benefit the committee or commission member's outside employment, business, personal finances, or immediate family member such as a spouse, child, or parent/guardian.

OUTSIDE EMPLOYMENT. A member shall not use his or her authority over a particular matter to negotiate future employment with any person or organization that relates to: (1) any contract funded by bond or parcel tax proceeds or (2) any construction project. A member shall not make or influence a District decision related to any construction project or contact with the District involving the interest of a person with whom the member has an agreement concerning current or future employment, or remuneration of any kind. For a period of two (2) years after leaving a body, a former member may not represent any person or organization for compensation in connection with any matter pending before the District that, as a committee or commission member, he or she participated in personally and substantially. Specifically, for a period of two (2) years after leaving a body, a former member and the companies and businesses for which the member works shall be prohibited from contracting with the District with respect to:

- (1) Bidding on projects funded by the bond or parcel tax proceeds; and
- (2) Any construction project.

COMMITMENT TO UPHOLD LAW. A member shall uphold the federal and California Constitutions, the laws and regulations of the United States and the State of California (particularly the Education Code), and all other applicable government entities, and the policies, procedures, rules and regulations of the Oakland Unified School District.

COMMITMENT TO IMPROVEMENT OF DISTRICT. A member shall place the interests of the District above any personal or business interest of the member.
