Under the direction of Lucy Calkins, Founding Director, The Reading Writing Project Network, LLC is a professional staff development organization. The Reading Writing Project Network's mission is to improve reading and writing instruction, grades K-8. The planned services resemble those which the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project has, for almost three decades, provided to its member schools. The Reading Writing Project Network was incorporated in 2002.

All Reading and Writing Project Network Consultants maintain close ties with the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project. Although, the Network's leadership is firmly grounded in the work of the Teachers College Reading and Writing Project, each individual leader brings a broad range of additional experience to the Network's consultancy, and offers special expertise in diverse areas of literacy education. The RWPN consultants provide their services as independent contractors and not as staff employees.

The Reading and Writing Project Network has lasting and deep affiliations with hundreds of schools across the nation, as well as, around the globe. Our aim is to support literacy instruction through research and professional development which includes methods of supporting large scale school reform, of coaching teachers, and of leading schools in which young people grow to be avid and skilled readers and writers.
