Memo

To Board of Education

From Kyla Johnson-Trammell, Superintendent
Sondra Aguilera, Chief Academic Officer
Christian Nelson, Director, Adult and Career Education

Board Meeting Date December 11, 2019

Subject Oakland Adult and Career Education - Adult High School Diploma Requirements (Revision)

Action Requested and Recommendation

Approval by the Board of Education of Resolution No. 1920-0160 - Oakland Adult and Career Education - Adult High School Diploma Requirements (Revision). Beginning July 1, 2019, Oakland Adult and Career Education (OACE) re-established an Adult High School Diploma Program to complement OACE's High School Equivalency program per Board Enactment No. 19-1141, passed by the Board of Education on 6-26-19.

This is to amend the requirements for the OACE Adult High School Diploma which were incorrectly stated and submitted on June 26, 2019. The amended OACE Adult High School Diploma Program requirements are:

- three courses in English
- two courses in mathematics including one year of Algebra I (EC Section 51224.5)
- two courses in science including biological and physical sciences
- three courses in social studies including United States history and geography; world history, culture, and geography; a one - semester course in American government and civics, and a one-semester course in economics
- three semesters of visual or performing arts, foreign language (a semester in American Sign Language shall be deemed a semester in foreign language) or career technical education
- one semester of OACE college and career planning
- two semesters of electives.

Background

{Why do we need these services? Why have you selected this vendor?}

OACE provides an Adult High School Diploma that provides an alternative option for graduation as per Board Policy 6146.11 and a high school recovery program for high school students 18 and over to make up deficient credits.

OACE has a robust and continuous 149-year history of providing Adult Education services throughout the City of Oakland. Since July of 2015, ongoing dedicated Adult Education funding through the California Adult Education Program (CAEP) in the Governor's budget and the federal support of the Workforce Innovations and Opportunity Act, (WIOA) Title II funding, along with CalWORKs and other sources of funding, have been supporting OACE each year to provide Basic Skills, High School Diploma/Equivalency, ESL College and Career Readiness, Family Literacy, Career Technical Education, and Pre-Apprenticeship Math instruction.
