UC Berkeley Public Service Center Statement of Qualifications

As one of the top ranked public universities in the world, UC Berkeley is extremely well positioned to facilitate and support meaningful community engagement opportunities for students. Public service is core to the university's mission to provide excellence in teaching, research, and service. Community engagement has been instrumental to the student experience at UC Berkeley since its founding as the state's first land grant institution. This commitment was revitalized with student activism in the late 1960s. While most are familiar with the resulting Free Speech Movement, student activism also led to the creation of a community partnerships office. That office evolved and grew into today's Public Service Center (PSC). The PSC supports students in engaging in meaningful community service to support positive social change while exposing them to learning opportunities.

The Public Service Center manages the following programs that connect students to community service:

- Berkeley United in Literacy Development (BUILD) is one of the largest reading programs in the East Bay, with 215 UC Berkeley student mentors providing one-to-one literacy support to 850 youth at 20 locations in Oakland and Berkeley. Each mentor is matched with 3 children with whom they work individually in 30-35 minute after-school sessions twice a week. Mentors work with the same children for at least one semester, and sometimes for years. In addition, all mentors attend an orientation, 3 trainings per semester, and weekly meetings with their mentor team. BUILD runs in fall, spring, and summer.
- College Corps is a statewide partnership with California Volunteers to create debt-free pathways to college while mobilizing thousands of college students to tackle pressing community issues. At UC Berkeley, approximately 100 undergraduates are serving with community partners supporting food and climate justice, K-12 education, and behavioral health & wellness efforts.

- The Public Service Internship (PSI) program connects students with Bay Area social justice issues through internships that focus on policy, community organizing, or direct service. Students intern for 8-10 hours a week for the academic year and enroll in a field studies course for units. Student interns also meet as a cohort throughout the year to build leadership and professional skills and explore social change strategies.
- The Peter E. Haas Public Service Leaders Program provides need-based scholarships to undergraduate student leaders who have demonstrated a significant commitment to off-campus service activities. Students are eligible for awards up to $7,000 for the academic year, based on a combination of financial need and impact of project/service. The program engages students in a year-long training and support system to ensure their personal success in their service, including monthly trainings, reflective dialogues, and regular coaching/advising sessions with professional staff.

Agency Letter: UC Regents, on behalf of its UC Berkeley Public Service Center's BUILD & College Corps Programs

September 24, 2024

To Whom It May Concern,

All UC Berkeley students who are placed in OUSD partnerships through BUILD and/or College Corps will be TB tested, with results kept on file by the Public Service Center. Students will also be fingerprinted via the following protocols:

- BUILD Mentors: as BUILD's direct contract is with Bay Area Community Resources (BACR), the Lead Agency running afterschool programs at our partner schools of Sankofa United, Emerson, and Martin Luther King Jr Elementary Schools, all mentors will be fingerprinted directly by BACR with results kept on file and accessible to BACR staff. Work Study mentors are additionally fingerprinted by UC Berkeley as part of their onboarding. ATI numbers and results are available from BACR.
- College Corps Fellows: All College Corps Fellows undergo a background check and are fingerprinted with clearance through the FBI as part of their AmeriCorps onboarding. The Public Service Center stores results and can confirm clearance results upon request. All OUSD Fellows undergo additional fingerprinting through OUSD's via Be A Mentor following this process with results available through Be A Mentor.

TB test dates can be confirmed via the Public Service Center. We may be contacted at publicservice@berkeley.edu or (510) 642-3916. For direct program contacts, please email: BuildLiteracy@berkeley.edu for BUILD and collegecorps@berkeley.edu for College Corps.

Sincerely,
