Department: Community Schools and Student Services

Vendor Name: Teaching Tolerance

Contract Term: Start Date: 1/1/2018 End Date: 6/30/2018

Annual Cost: $ 8,850.00

Approved by: Mara Larsen-Fleming

Is Vendor a local Oakland business? Yes No

Why was this Vendor selected?

Teaching Tolerance was selected as a vendor because it awards educator grants each year.

Summarize the services this Vendor will be providing.

Teaching Tolerance will be providing funding to support our annual Gender and Sexuality Alliance (GSA) Day in April 2018. Support includes the funding of teacher substitutes, food for students, rental of a large space, and books for students.

The desired outcome for GSA are twofold:
1) To build district-wide community for lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students;
2) To teach students how to be change makers at their schools through social justice activism and peer leadership.

Was this contract competitively bid? Yes No

If No, answer the following:

1) How did you determine the price is competitive?

This is a grant award.

2) Please check the competitive bid exception relied upon:

- Educational Materials
- Special Services contracts for financial, economic, accounting, legal or administrative services
- CUPCCAA exception (Uniform Public Construction Cost Accounting Act)
- Professional Service Agreements of less than $87,800 (increases a small amount on January 1 of each year)
- Construction related Professional Services such as Architects, DSA Inspectors, Environmental Consultants and Construction Managers (require a "fair, competitive selection process)
- Energy conservation and alternative energy supply (e.g., solar, energy conservation, co-generation and alternate energy supply sources)
- Emergency contracts [requires Board resolution declaring an emergency]
- Technology contracts
 - electronic data-processing systems, supporting software and/or services (including copiers/printers) over the $87,800 bid limit, must be competitively advertised, but any one of the three lowest responsible bidders may be selected
 - contracts for computers, software, telecommunications equipment, microwave equipment, and other related electronic equipment and apparatus, including E-Rate solicitations, may be procured through an RFP process instead of a competitive, lowest price bid process
 - Western States Contracting Alliance Contracts (WSCA)
 - California Multiple Award Schedule Contracts (CMAS) [contracts are often used for the purchase of information technology and software]
- "Piggyback" Contracts with other governmental entities
- Perishable Food
- Sole Source
- Change Order for Material and Supplies if the cost agreed upon in writing does not exceed ten percent of the original contract price
- Other, please provide specific exception

Information Needed	School or Department Response
How will this grant contribute to sustained student achievement or academic standards?	The grant will assist the Community Schools and Student Services Department to fund a district-wide conference for middle and high school lesbian, gay, bisexual, and transgender students and allies.
How will this grant be evaluated for impact upon student achievement? (Customized data design and technical support are provided at 1% of the grant award or at a negotiated fee for a community-based fiscal agent who is not including OUSD's indirect rate of 5.59% in the budget. The 1% or negotiated data fee will be charged according to an Agreement for Grant Administration Related Services payment schedule. This fee should be included in the grant's budget for evaluation.)	We will create a student evaluation and climate survey for completion at the event to understand the impact of conference.
Does the grant require any resources from the school(s) or district? If so, describe.	No.
Are services being supported by an OUSD funded grant or by a contractor paid through an OUSD contract or MOU? (If yes, include the district's indirect rate of 5.59% for all OUSD site services in the grant's budget for administrative support, evaluation data, or indirect services.)	No. This is only to pay for conference expenses.
Will the proposed program take students out of the classroom for any portion of the school day? (OUSD reserves the right to limit service access to students during the school day to ensure academic attendance continuity.)	Yes, one full day conference in April 2018.
Who is the contact managing and assuring grant compliance? (Include contact's name, address, phone number, email address.) Dear Ilsa, Congratulations!

We are pleased to inform you that your project has been selected to receive a Teaching Tolerance Educator Grant. These grants are made possible by the loyal support of donors to the Southern Poverty Law Center.

In an effort to achieve and document quality results for the Educator Grants program, we ask that you agree to the terms outlined in the attached acceptance form. Please sign the document and return it to TTGrants@tolerance.org by Friday December 15th (and be sure to keep a copy for your own records). In addition, please ensure that your organization submits a W-9 form as an email attachment, for tax purposes.

In addition to the required report, we encourage you to document your project and share the results with us. (Selected projects will be featured on the Teaching Tolerance website or in our magazine!)

Again, congratulations on receiving funding for your project. Your grant dollars will be dispersed to you shortly after we receive your signed acceptance form.

We wish you the best in implementing your project and look forward to hearing about the results.

Sincerely,

Jey Ehrenhalt
School-based Programs and Grants Manager
