Safe Passages' Agency History and Qualifications

Founded in 1995, Safe Passages was created as part of the five-city, ten-year Urban Health Initiative (UHI) funded by the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation. Over the last sixteen years, Safe Passages has helped government work together with community-based agencies, holding each other accountable, to redirect government and private resources to implement strategies proven to reduce youth violence and help level the playing field for the most vulnerable and marginalized students, families and communities in Alameda county. These strategies, along a continuum of services from birth through college and career include: Early Childhood, School-Linked Services, Juvenile Justice and College to Career. Safe Passages leverages our history and deep capacity in partnership with school communities to implement afterschool programs.

The organization focused on three main strategies: Early Childhood, Middle School Strategy and Juvenile Justice. The Safe Passages Middle School Strategy was a multi-pronged approach to creating positive school climates and providing students and their families the support needed to be successful in school and life. From the beginning, afterschool programming was one of the five prongs of the strategy. Initially, the seven highest need middle schools were selected as partners in 2000 to implement the strategy: Frick, Havenscourt (CCPA) and Calvin Simmons (UFSA) were all part of the first cohort of implementation schools.

The partnership withstood the test of time, surviving many changes in personnel, leadership, and the economy. Over the years, Safe Passages facilitated the development of the Coordination of Services Team (COST) system, case management and mental health services for students and parents, school based health centers at some target schools and afterschool programs. Several models developed by Safe Passages, like COST, were adopted by OUSD and replicated across the school district. Several of the Safe Passages schools, including those schools where Safe Passages serves as the lead afterschool agency are leading schools in OUSD's Full Service Community Schools Initiative.

Safe Passages partnerships with the school communities that are the focus of these contracts embody 13 years of partnership. Within those thirteen years of partnership, Safe Passages has collaborated with dozens of community based partners and independent contractors. Currently, Safe Passages partners with 45 public and private agencies to implement the Elev8 Full Service Community Schools Initiative. Safe Passages partners with school communities in Oakland and San Lorenzo to implement quality programs.

As a result of these partnerships, hundreds of students and families are served each year at target schools. Safe Passages has also successfully led the implementation of Elev8, a $25 million initiative at five middle schools in Oakland. Finally, Safe Passages has leveraged millions of dollars for services for Oakland youth and families.
