‘How does it feel to be a part of history?’ Oakland teens cast their first votes

Five years after student leaders launched the youth vote campaign in response to budget cuts in OUSD, Oakland high schoolers celebrated the moment.

- OYV was featured on The OaklandSide!
- “I’ve heard many times that our generation is soft, weak, and pampered. In reality, we are resilient, open-minded, brave, but better than all of those, we aren’t scared to speak our truth,” said Maximus Simmons”
- “About 3,500 11th and 12th graders are eligible to vote in this year’s school board election for Districts 1, 3, 5, and 7. The youth vote coalition, in collaboration with the League of Women Voters, has registered about 900 students so far this year.”

Thank you to ACC, AYPAL, Californians for Justice, Oakland Kids First, Oakland Youth Commission, Core Leaders Committee, Youth Together, Alameda County Registrar of Voters, KDOL, OUSD, and every one else that supported this historic moment for Oakland students to vote!

Moving forward

- Systematize support for youth voters in Oakland and data collection
- Continue civic engagement and voter education in schools
- OYV coalition will evaluate the effectiveness of the civic engagement curriculum & registrars handling of youth election

Official number of oakland youth that registered to vote according to the ACROV is 1,524*!
