Refugee Transitions' Statement of Qualifications

Prepared for Oakland Unified School District
2014-2015

Refugee Transitions (RT) is a nonprofit education and social service organization that began in 1982. Its mission is to assist low-income refugee, asylee and immigrant families in becoming self-sufficient in the U.S. by providing services that help them attain the English language, life, job, and academic skills they need to succeed in their new communities. RT served 1295 students in 2013--more than any year prior and helped hundreds of newcomer families in Oakland reach their goals. Our model is unique: staff and volunteers reach students in their homes, schools, and communities—resulting in mutually beneficial relationships and increased social capital. Our programs create bridges to the local community and help newcomers gain the English language and life skills needed to succeed in school and become leaders in their new communities.

Refugee Transitions has extensive experience working with newcomer families and is connected with numerous refugee, asylee and immigrant families throughout the Bay Area. RT's core program is home-based tutoring for which the agency recruits, trains and screens community volunteers and then matches them with students for weekly home-based English language and academic tutoring. Refugee Transitions collaborates with Oakland Unified School District (OUSD) to provide individualized tutoring for students throughout the district. RT is quick to respond to the needs of newcomer communities and fill gaps in services. As a result, RT's students achieve positive outcomes. Of the approximately 150 youth who have received home-based tutoring during the past two years, 96% have stayed in school and 88% of our seniors receiving home-based tutoring completed &/or graduated from high school.

Refugee Transitions formalized its partnership with OUSD in 2006 when the agency helped launch the District's Refugee & Asylee Student Assistance Program, which helps refugee/asylee students enroll in the school district, connect to service providers, access after school, pull out, and home-based tutoring programs, learn about community resources, complete Independent Educational Plans, and much more.

In 2007 RT expanded its partnership with OUSD to start an after school program at Oakland International High School—which is now in its eighth year. The program provides after school tutoring Monday through Thursday during the academic year. In addition to hiring lead instructors, RT recruits, trains and supports adult volunteer tutors. Together they help students complete their homework assignments and provide additional opportunities for youth to connect to caring adults and practice English. To ensure alignment between the school day and after school program, RT's lead after school instructor assists in classes a few days per week. The program has been extremely successful. During the fall 2013-2014 school year, the program reached approximately 250 students (averaging 60 students per day). And despite the large number of students, we are proud that we have been able to maintain a low tutor to student ratio—with an average of 1 tutor to every 8 students.

To create leadership opportunities and further ensure alignment between the school day, RT also recruits, trains and supports peer tutors. The peer tutors are naturally compassionate, and have the ability to connect with the students in their native languages, which is critical to reaching students who come to OIHS from all over the world and have very limited English skills. Many of the students in the after school program do not have parents who can speak, read or write English fluently, and without the after school program, many of them would have no assistance with their homework or with test prep.

The success rate of those participating in the peer tutoring program is impressive:

- 100% of peer tutors are on track to complete high school
- 100% of former youth leaders are enrolled in post-secondary institutions (both 2 year and 4 year colleges)

In addition, through funding from the Refugee & Asylee Student Assistance Program, RT has been able to expand its after school programming to Roosevelt and Bret Harte Middle Schools in order to serve over 25 refugee and asylee youth from countries such as Burma, Bhutan, Iraq and Guatemala. The program has evolved over the last year to offer targeted assistance for a cohort of students with very limited English while creating bridges between the schools and students' homes.

RT also leverages other funds. In the last few years RT secured funding from Oakland Fund for Children and Youth to provide pull out programming and a parent-child class at Franklin Elementary School as well as family engagement programming at Franklin Recreation Center. And most recently, RT began a pull out program for newcomers at Manzanita Elementary School two days per week.

In addition to providing English and academic support for youth, RT provides two parent English language classes at Oakland International High School. This last year the class was successful in providing English language and literacy instruction for 60 parents while achieving positive outcomes. RT administered pre and post assessments using the Comprehensive Adult Student Assessment System and was successful in meeting rigorous State level completion goals established by the National Reporting System and the Department of Education.

RT will ensure that accurate fiscal and management practices are undertaken as required by Oakland Unified School System. In accordance with OUSD policy, RT ensures that all staff, volunteers, and tutors are screened before working at schools in the district and in students' homes. The agency has efficient systems in place for conducting Department of Justice background checks and TB screens.
