EXHIBIT "A" SCOPE OF WORK

[IF A CONTRACTOR PROVIDES AN ACCEPTABLE DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES AS PART OF A PROPOSAL, THAT DESCRIPTION OF SERVICES MAY BE ATTACHED WITHOUT ANY TERMS, CONDITIONS, LIMITATIONS, ETC., FROM THAT PROPOSAL.]

Description of Services to be Provided: Provide a description of the service(s) the contractor will provide. Be specific about what service(s) OUSD is purchasing and what this Contractor will do.

CAFL's WriterCoach Connection recruits, trains and coordinates community volunteers as classroom writing coaches to encourage students to think critically, write proficiently, and develop their own ideas. CAFL will provide writing coaches for one-on-one writing conferences for students in all sophomore English classes and one ELD class at Fremont High. Coaches will meet with students for 20-30 minute coaching sessions approximately 9-10 times throughout the school year.

CAFL services include:

- (1) Program Planning and Oversight: CAFL plans the program with Fremont High participants, retains a volunteer recruitment coordinator to recruit community volunteers, and retains a site coordinator to coordinate writing coaches in collaboration with the English teachers.
- (2) Training: CAFL's professional trainers train volunteer coaches in program principles, logistics, and strategies for working effectively with students of different abilities, at different stages of the writing process, and on various types of writing assignments.
- (3) Implementation: CAFL provides writing coaches for every tenth grade student at Fremont High School and collaborates with the teacher on effective implementation, including scheduling the coaching sessions, the teacher's writing assignments, and assigning coach/student pairs. (4) Assessment: CAFL conducts program assessment and reports results to the school.

2. Specific Outcomes: What are the expected outcomes from the services of this Contract? Be specific. For example, as a result of the service(s): 1) How many more Oakland children are graduating from high school? 2) How many more Oakland children are attending school 95% or more? 3) How many more students have meaningful internships and/or paying jobs? 4) How many more Oakland children have access to, and use, the health services they need? Provide details of program participation (Students will ) and measurable outcomes (Participants will be able to ). NOT THE GOALS OF THE SITE OR DEPARTMENT.

Last year Fremont had a 29.4% overall CAHSEE pass rate. But we had a 34.8% pass rate on the ELA portion, 48.4% if you only include the general ed student. And this year's Fall SRI results for the 10th graders have us with only 14% reading at or above grade level. Without addressing this we will not be able to increase our Graduation Rate.

We are looking to significantly increase these the initial pass rate as that has an impact on student graduation rate. We know that the more students read and process their reading they will become better reader. And this will assist student. We are striving to meet and surpass the district goal of a 2% increase in the initial score on the CAHSEE pass rate and significantly increase the numbers of students reading at or above grade level but in particular 10th grade as this is the time when they take the initial CAHSEE. We know that this will then improve graduation rate.

Another goal is an increase in CELDT reclassification rate. In prior years the WCC did not include the ELL students. The one on one support given to our 10th grade ELL students should also help our students meet the requirements for reclassification. Our goal is that the work of WCC will assist us to meet and surpase the district goal of 10% reclassification of LTEL students.

program, and these volunteers, now more than ever."—Tony Smith, Former Superintendent, Oakland Unified School District

This year more than 2,000 secondary school students in Alameda and West Contra Costa Counties are becoming stronger, more confident writers with the help of community volunteers recruited, trained, and organized as writer coaches by WriterCoach Connection.

Since 2001, WriterCoach Connection has sent teams of trained community volunteers into secondary school English classrooms to work one on one with students on their writing assignments. During the 2013–14 school year, 678 volunteer coaches provided 18,808 regular coaching sessions for students in 80 East Bay classrooms. WCC is currently serving 11 secondary schools in the Oakland, West Contra Costa County, Berkeley and Albany school districts. Next year we will bring our program to Kennedy High, our second high school in Richmond.

Our goal is to help students think critically and to express their ideas clearly and confidently in writing. To develop these skills, crucial to college and workplace success, most students need more support than their schools can provide. The National Commission on Writing advises, and other experts agree, that teachers and students need to devote more time to writing, and students need more feedback at every stage of the writing process. WCC volunteers help to bridge this gap between the writing instruction teachers can offer and the extra attention that students need. "It's like having 35 teachers here," one El Cerrito High School teacher marveled.

WCC's trained coaches offer 8 to 14 individual writing conferences of 20 to 45 minutes during the year to every student in a classroom. These one-to-one coaching sessions benefit every student, providing the differentiated instruction that remains an elusive goal in most public schools. Coaches are trained to challenge more proficient writers to reach for higher standards and to encourage students who are unmotivated or ashamed of their poor English skills to start expressing their ideas in writing with confidence and pride. The inclusiveness of the program is especially beneficial for at-risk students because it eliminates the stigma associated with remedial tutoring and ensures that struggling writers who might otherwise fall through the cracks receive the help they need and too often do not seek on their own.

As WCC has expanded into increasingly challenging educational environments, we have refined our coach training to serve the many students who face the additional challenge of learning English as a second language. And as schools prepare for the heightened focus on writing that the new Common Core Standards demand, we are working with teachers and administrators to ensure that our coaches will provide the enhanced instructional support that is needed more urgently than ever.
