Agency Profile

Bay Area Wilderness Training (BAWT) a project of Earth Island Institute, was founded with the idea that California's bountiful wilderness areas are a vast – yet untapped – resource for local youth-serving organizations. BAWT promotes the wise use of these national, state and regional parks through our professional wilderness leadership training. Then, we connect the teachers and youth workers to our outdoor gear libraries. That way, youth organizations and schools may outfit their groups for trips of their own – free of charge!

BAWT's mission is to create opportunities for urban youth to experience wilderness first hand. To meet this mission, we train youth workers, provide outdoor gear loans and transportation, give financial support as needed and leverage our community of peers.

BAWT exists as a vital, comprehensive and ongoing source of support to agencies that lead youth wilderness trips. We believe that urban youth, once exposed to wilderness, have a broadened sense of themselves, each other, and the world around them. BAWT extends its services to the eight counties of the San Francisco Bay Area. We hope other organizations will take this vision to the rest of the country and the larger world.

With this vision in mind, BAWT has developed a set of four core values:

- 1. Diversity: We promote a diverse community of environmental educators.
- 2. Risk: We foster the virtues of positive, calculated risk taking.
- 3. Environmental Stewardship: We honor and protect the earth.
- 4. Relationships: We nurture a culture of learning through relationships.

Sincerely,

2M Alt

Core Values

Helping YOU get Youth Outdoors!

Bay Area Wildemess Training's mission is to create opportunities for youth from the San Francisco Bay Area to experience wildemess first hand. To achieve our mission, we train teachers and youth workers, provide outdoor gear loans, give financial support, and foster community collaboration.

Vision Statement

Bay Area Wildemess Training (BAWT) envisions a world where all youth have access to the wildemess. We believe that youth, once exposed to the wildemess, have a broadened sense of themselves, one another, and the world around them and are better prepared to lead social and environmental change.

- Four core values guide BAWT's work:
 - Diversity: We purposefully engage with a diverse community of teachers and youth workers to ensure all of these leaders are better prepared to lead youth from an increasingly diverse San Francisco Bay Area. Risk: We foster the virtues of positive, calculated risk-taking and provide the tools necessary to engage in such activities
 - safely · Environmental Stewardship: Our leadership trainings ensure that teachers and youth workers have the skills necessary to lead responsible outdoor trips and to cultivate an environmental ethic in the youth they serve
 - · Relationships: We seek to build a culture of the outdoors that echoes throughout communities by building relationships with existing community leaders:

Our supporters

Each year, thousands of youth experience the outdoors through Bay Area Wilderness Training's programs. This work would not be possible without the help of individual donors. This includes our Climbing for Kids fundraiser's climbers and their supporters, who make up the largest source of revenue for us. Over 90% of revenues are used towards program support, development and fundraising.

Thank you to all our donors, both individual and corporate. We could not have reached all these youth without your support.
