FISCAL YEARS 2015-2017

WHEREAS, efforts to reduce chronic absenteeism and improve school attendance are strongly aligned with the citywide goals to promote student success in school, to prevent violence and youth involvement in gangs, and to ensure a healthy transition to adulthood for all of Oakland's youth; and

WHEREAS, when students miss too much school it can cause them to fall behind academically and research shows that children chronically absent in kindergarten and 1st grade are much less likely to read at grade level by the end of 3rd grade; by 6th grade, chronic absences are a proven early warning sign for students at risk of dropping out of school; by 9th grade, good attendance can predict graduation rates even better than 8th grade test scores; and

WHEREAS, the Oakland Unified School District (OUSD) has established district-wide targets to 1. Reduce chronic absence to 5% of students at every school, 2. Ensure that 85% of students attend school 95% of days annually, and 3. Reach an average daily attendance (ADA) rate of 98% at every school; and

WHEREAS, OUSD has identified strategies to address attendance including the provision of targeted support provided to schools with high rates of chronic absence to help build site capacity to manage attendance, engagement of families and the community around the importance of attendance, and the hiring of four case managers during the 2015-2016 school year to support ten elementary schools with high rates of chronic absenteeism, including two positions funded by the City of Oakland and two positions funded by OUSD; and

WHEREAS, the two City-funded case managers will be City employees hired by the City of Oakland and supervised by the Human Services Department's Children and Youth Services Division; and
