

Measure N Education Improvement Plan Design Evaluation Process

Measure N Design Year Evaluation

Part I of Rubric: Linked Learning Pathway Development Readiness Rubric

Does the Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA) demonstrate a thorough design process that has set the foundation for a strong pathway development plan that will meet the purpose and outcomes of Measure N?

No
Does the school have a clear action plan and timeline to further develop the design process that would not require another full year of design work?
No (Probationary)	Yes (Conditional Approval)
What are key areas of pathway development that need to be furthered developed in order to set a strong foundation for pathway build out?	Evidence can be identified in the Linked Learning Pathway Development Readiness Rubric

Yes (Approved)
Evidence can be identified in the Linked Learning Pathway Development Readiness Rubric

Part II of Rubric: Measure N Self Assessment

Does the Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA) demonstrate the implementation of a career pathway(s) and meet the purpose of Measure N?

No
Is the school site developing the conditions to support pathway build out and development?
No (Probationary)	Yes (Conditional Approval)
What are the barriers to pathway implementation that need to be addressed?	Evidence can be identified in the Measure N Self Assessment that career pathway(s) are being built

Yes (Approved)
Evidence can be identified in the Measure N Self Assessment that you a career pathway is established

Part III: Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA)

Do the various components of the Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA) demonstrate a clear logical thruline that will meet the purpose and outcomes of Measure N?

No (Probationary)	Yes (Conditional Approval)	Yes (Approved)
Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA) needs further development to have a clearer logical thruline and to demonstrate a strong pathway development plan that can be implemented	Evidence can be identified in the Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA) that meet the Measure N Implementation Rubric criteria	Evidence can be identified in the Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA) that meet the Measure N Implementation Rubric criteria

Sites will be expected to present to the Measure N Commission in the fall on their action plan, updated Measure N Education Improvement Plan (SPSA), and progress.

Site will be prioritized by the Measure N Commission for a follow up site visit during the year.

*Sites will receive Full Funding during the 1 Year of Probationary status. Sites will be expected to have addressed the areas of growth by the end of the 1 Year of Probationary status and must demonstrate this during the annual May presentations to the Measure N Commission. Sites that do not follow the process outlined above will be re-evaluated and will receive Planning Funding.

update to the Linked Learning Office Staff that will then be reported to the Measure N Commission.

Sites will provide a mid-year status update to the Linked Learning Office Staff that will then be reported to the Measure N Commission.
