Subject Black Reparations: Black Students & Families Task Force Update

Ask of the Board This is an update on the formation of the Black Student and Families Thriving Task Force. We are asking for feedback on our plan for the formation of the Task Force.

Background The Board of Education passed the Resolution 2021-0037: Reparations for Black Students on March 24, 2021. The resolution “directs the Superintendent to establish a Black Student and Families Thriving Task Force (“Task Force”), not later than June 9, 2021, comprised of Black Students, caregivers, community members, educators and members of the Black Working Group of the Justice for Oakland Students Coalition, representatives from District compliance committees such as CAC, LCAP PSAC, CEEBSE, reporting directly to the Superintendent, that will guide and monitor the establishment and implementation of this Resolution.”

Discussion The presentation includes an overview of the proposed structures and roles for the Black Students & Families Task Force, the membership criteria and selection process and the identified next steps needed to begin the task force meetings.

Fiscal Impact None at this time.
