Sangita Kumar led a process for the task force to prioritize and rank indicators for what the members feel is most important.

The presentation for this item is linked here.

The task force members moved to 6 different breakout rooms. The notes from the breakout rooms are in this handout.

Members of the public had the option to join the breakout rooms to observe the discussion.

The second part of the discussion included having the Task Force Members review the prioritized indicators and identify a metric and measurement for each one. They were asked to share if they know of a measurement that already exists in OUSD or not as well.
