Elementary Playground Redesign Campaign is Moving Full Steam Ahead

Initiative: Joyful Schools
www.ousd.org/strategicplan

Since last May, four elementary schools have undergone major transformations of their playgrounds. Three of the sites now have new play structures, sport courts, and gardens and/or outdoor classrooms.

This one was finished in May at Allendale. It officially opened on the first day of school. During the summer, two more sites - Hoover and Acorn Woodland & EnCompass Academy - received new playgrounds.

Just this week, Lockwood STEAM Academy started its renovation project. And more projects are on the way, thanks to Eat. Learn. Play. Foundation, Kaboom! and their partners and supporters. Many thanks to all of them!

Many Schools Receive Great Support From Local Organizations

As happens at the start of every school year, local organizations stepped up this year to ensure students have plenty of school supplies to help with their studies. This was an event at Horace Mann Elementary in which SupplyBank.org, Lend A Hand Foundation, and Kaiser Permanente came together to give students bags full of school supplies.

Along with its partners, Lend A Hand, for example, gave backpacks and school supplies to students at 25 schools, plus more than 1,000 newcomer and unhoused students. Many thanks go to these wonderful partners!

Oakland Tech Girls Hoops Team Receives Championship Rings

Five months after they surprised the high school sports world and took their third State Championship in a row, this one in Division 1, the Oakland Technical High Bulldogs Girls Basketball Team received their championship rings.

It happened at a private home at which the players gathered for a meal and inspirational words shared by coaches, players, and supporters. Two new graduates were there in person, and several joined the fun via Zoom from their colleges. Congrats to the Bulldogs!

- Families are still enrolling their children online and in person.
- Families are leaving the area based on the cost of living in Oakland, but some families are also moving to Oakland from more expensive areas as well.
- Families may be holding seats in both charter schools/private schools and OUSD schools
- There are families on the waitlist for other schools and may not have shown up to the assigned school
- Many schools are not staffed to manage enrollment during the summer months.
