OUSD Students Excel in Cow Palace MLK Art Contest

On Tuesday, February 4, there was a special event at the Cow Palace in Daly City that featured the art work of numerous OUSD High school students. It was a reception for the winners of the facility's annual Step Into The Light Art Contest honoring Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. who once spoke at the Cow Palace.

Students from MetWest High, Oakland Technical High, Skyline High, and Sojourner Truth Independent Study entered the contest with paintings, multimedia art, and written word pieces, and four of them placed, winning ribbons. A first place winner took home a $300 prize. A couple students took third place, one took second, and Oren F. from Sojourner Truth came in first. Congratulations to all the winners!

Most of the students could not make it there on a rainy night, but Edwin B. from Skyline was there and proudly stood for a photo with his written piece and Cow Palace staff and his teacher, Ms. Awele (left). Edwin says he plans to keep doing this kind of writing next year in college. Congrats Edwin!

Hundreds of OUSD Students Take Part in NBA/WNBA Clinic

The NBA All Star Game in San Francisco brought lots of opportunities to OUSD students. Few were bigger than on the Friday, February 14, more than 650 students from elementary and middle schools across the District got to take part in a basketball clinic at Moscone Center.

The schools that joined the fun included La Escuelita, REACH Academy, Claremont Middle School, Frick United Academy of Language, United For Success Academy, and West Oakland Middle School. In two different sessions, the students got to do basketball drills and learn skills and they did so with NBA players including Moses Moody (pictured) and Trayce Jackson-Davis of the Golden State Warriors.

Many participants were members of Oakland Athletic League middle school basketball teams. The students and the adult chaperones clearly had a wonderful time. District transportation partner Zūm took the students to and from the venue free of charge.

NBA Wives Assoc. Supports McClymonds Female Student-Athletes

Also because of the NBA All Star Game, there was a Books and Ball Event at McClymonds High School on Thursday, February 13, hosted by the National Basketball Wives Association. The NBWA kicked off its year-round 2025 Books and Ball initiative with 47 female student-athletes and a seminar in the school's library.

The students who took part gained insight into important topics such as Name, Image, Likeness (NIL), financial literacy, and mental wellness. The students also got to enjoy a basketball clinic led by Britnea Moore from Access Your Game Training in collaboration with Reshanda Gray from No Gray Areas.

As NBWA's 2025 Books and Ball recipient, McClymonds High also received a $25,000 grant to support the academic and social needs of the student-athletes.
