

Nomination and Selection of PSAC Lead Delegates

PSAC members, also known as delegates, can nominate themselves to become Lead Delegates.

Lead Delegates work with staff to plan meetings, communicate with other members, approve and present official statements, among other things.

PSAC can have two to seven Lead Delegates.

From Article III: Section 6 of the PSAC Bylaws

Lead Delegates of PSAC commit to attend planning meetings.
All members are invited, but not required, to attend.

1st Tuesdays	Set Direction Based on Annual Priorities and Other Identified Needs Set Goals for the Public Meeting
2nd Tuesdays	Draft Agenda for the Public Meeting Identify Member Roles for the Public Meeting
3rd Tuesdays	Review Presentations for the Public Meeting
4th Tuesdays	Plan communication with the members, address any remaining needs from the current month

We are continuing to take nominations tonight.

The following PSAC delegates have already been approved by the members to become lead delegates:

Damien Defils, Sr. (District 5, Fruitvale, UFSA)

JT Mates-Muchin (District 6, Skyline)

Additional nominations: _____

MOTION to approve the named nominees to become
PSAC lead delegates:

SECOND to the Motion:

QUESTIONS?

OBJECTIONS?

OUTCOME: